Power of God's Name

Welcome to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk with Reverend Jennifer Hadley, a beloved teacher of the Course, who has helped thousands learn how to express their beliefs from moment to moment in their everyday lives. Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace through practical application.

Here is your host, Reverend Jennifer Hadley.

Jennifer Alright, here we go. I'm coming to you from Greece. I'm actually prerecording our show today because I will be deep in the thick of it later today when the retreat is unfolding. In case you aren't aware, I am in Greece on the island of Andros with my friends, Gary Renard, Maria Felipé, Patricia Black, and about 40 other people. We're having an intimate retreat at a beautiful hotel, just having an absolutely spectacular time. It's the Living A Course Miracles Retreat.

You can watch on livestream the teaching sessions, if you so choose. I'll tell you about all that, but let's always begin as we do with a prayer.

Yes, I'm Jennifer Hadley and I love to pray. I'm a prayer person.

Opening Prayer

We place our hand on our heart and we declare that we are wholeheartedly available for the Love of God to livestream right through us and as us. Our whole life, we're dedicating to Love, we're dedicating to Peace, to Harmony, to Joy, to Freedom, to the truth. We are choosing to live the unlimited, unprecedented life of God. We're grateful, grateful, grateful for our "Yes". We're grateful, grateful, grateful for the opportunity to join together in Spirit in this holy moment with this holy breath of Love and gratitude. We dedicate ourselves to sharing the power and the presence of Love with every one because we're One with them. We're sharing our insight, Clarity, Wisdom, healing, All-Good of God. Yes, extending throughout all directions of time and space the Love that we are.

In grace and gratitude, we dedicate our listening time, our sharing time to our expansion and our Clarity, and this is what we share with all. In gratitude, we let it be. In gratitude, we know it's done. In gratitude, we say, and so it is. Amen. Amen, Amen.

Lesson 183: I Call upon God's Name and on My Own

Oh, yeah, so grateful to share. As you can hear in my voice, there's something in the air that's getting me kind of an allergic reaction. Gary's experiencing it, too. We were blowing our noses last night. We're still so happy to be here and be together in Greece.

Yeah, I'd like to share with you first before we get into our session today that you can join us on livestream from Greece, so the teaching sessions were streaming live. We also have a video archive, so you can purchase access to the livestream and the video archive at ACIMRetreat.com, ACIMRetreat.com, or JenniferHadley.com or, LivingACourseinMiracles.com.

Speaking of Living A Course in Miracles because this is the Living A Course in Miracles Greek Retreat, we had two awesome classes last week with Lisa Natoli. Well, one with her and one with me, and I have to say they were very good, Miracles in your Finances, the Living A Course in Miracles Classes and two free classes again this week. One with Amy Torres and myself and then my homework class. Our topic this week is Intuition. Yes, miracles in your intuition, insight, Clarity.

This is a favorite topic of mine and it's a very popular topic. Again, two free classes. All you have to do is register at LivingACourseinMiracles.com, and then you get those free classes.

Our topic for the radio show this week is Lesson 183: "I call upon God's Name and on my own." I love how Spirit guides me to these things. You may have become familiar with a phrase that I personally love. At the beginning of prayers. "In the name of God, I AM that I AM." It's one that I frequently use. "In the name of God, I AM that I AM." I call upon God's Name and on my own. Let's see what this means here. By the way, this Lesson shows up right at the midpoint of the Workbook. I think it's significant.

"God's Name is holy, but no holier than yours. To call upon His Name is but to call upon your own."

Right there, yet another reminder we are not separate from God. We are One with God. God's Name is just as holy as ours. God's Name is our name because we are One with God. It explains it so beautifully here.

"A father gives his son his name, and thus identifies the son with him. His brothers share his name, and thus are they united in a bond to which they turn for their identity. Your Father's Name reminds you who you are, even within a world that does not know; even though you have not remembered it."

I AM that I AM

Our father's name is the same name as our own. Our brother's name is the same name as our own. "In the name of God, Beloved I AM that I AM." is a wonderful way to begin any prayer. Remembering that the name of God is I AM that I AM. I AM is the name of God. Yes. It is the name of our brothers and sisters. It is our name. "In the name of the Beloved I AM that I AM." Yes. "In the name of God, the Beloved I AM that I AM." These are all wonderful phrases that I use so often in my prayers. Constantly reminding myself that I am not separate from God, I AM that I AM that I AM.

If you've not been using I AM statements, I AM phrases, and you don't work with that--you could say, terminology. I encourage you to try it because one of the things that we do and one of the ways that we call are experiences into being is through I AM statements, and it's often through miscreation or misused of I AM statements. So, declaring. "I am not good enough, I am bad, I am wrong." instead of. "I am the Love of God." "I am the Wisdom of God." "I am the Peace of God." "I am the Son of God." We're learning how to use language effectively instead of tearing ourselves apart with it. It takes real willingness to pay attention to the language that we use and I do invite you to really pay attention to every I AM statement that you make.

In my classes, we work with I AM Willingness statements: "I am willing to have a healing. I'm willing to be loving. I am willing to be patient. I am willing to be kind. I am willing to be willing to be willing to be willing. I am willing to be willing to be open-minded. I am willing to be willing to forgive. I am willing to have a healing in my family. I am willing to open my heart. I am willing to experience Abundance. I am willing to be dedicated to compassion.”

God’s Name and our own are the same, right? Just like the son takes the father’s name and all the sons, all the children have their father’s name. In tradition, you have to remember, this is the ancient traditions. We can always find fault with anything if we’re interested, right? We can tear it apart. We can say. “Well, that’s not true in my family.” Well, it’s true in God’s family.

It says here in Paragraph 2 of Lesson 183: “God’s Name can not be heard without response, nor said without an echo in the mind that calls you to remember.”

“God’s Name can not be heard without response, nor said without an echo in the mind that calls you to remember.”

Now, if we believe to that, wouldn’t we call God’s Name all day long? Would you like to feel the response from God? Would you like to experience that echo in the mind that calls you to remember throughout the day, throughout the day, throughout the day. “In the name of God, Beloved I AM that I AM, I call upon You to remind me who I am.” How simple a prayer is that? “In the name of God, Beloved I AM that I AM, I call upon you to remind me who I am. I call upon You to remind me of my true identity. Let us wake up and use time to dissolve time.”

Gary was talking about this last night in one of our—in our teacher’s panel session about using time wisely, undoing time. The Course reminds us over and over again to use forgiveness to undo time, so that we can be far more effective in moving out of the experience of feeling locked or abandoned in time and space, instead we can wake up transcend time and space, transmute the suffering.

Here is a really beautiful, very simple tool. I encourage you to write it down, put it on a 3x5 card. “In the name of the Beloved I AM that I AM, I call upon You to remind me who I am, to assist me in seeing my brothers and sisters and who they truly are. My Beloved I AM that I AM.”

A True Forgiveness

Jesus tells us throughout the Course that our way-out time, out of suffering is through forgiveness. As I say in every episode in this radio show and everywhere I go, what is true forgiveness? It is the release of the judgment because it is the judgment that is how we use our freewill to lock ourselves into a belief in time and space. It is through judgment. It is through opinion. That's how we move into unforgiveness and that's what perpetuates our suffering in our experience of time and space.

Call Upon God All Day Long

I encourage you to do whatever you can to call upon the name of God and hear that echo all day long. It costs you nothing. This is the thing that so many spiritual students, including myself, I've heard them say because I used to say this all the time, I used to say, A: "I don't have enough time. I don't have enough time. If I had more time, I would deepen my spiritual practice. Oh, if I had more time, I would be such a dedicated student." It's just not true. You see, when we say, "If I had more time, then I would be a more dedicated spiritual student." then we're making time real which is not, of course. We're also saying that we are victims of time which we're not. We're not at all. We can undo time, we can shift time. We can transcend time. We can transmute time. We have tremendous skills as regards time if we are but willing to practice, to step up to the plate, as we say in America, to step up to the response ability that we have in each and every moment to step into the unlimited, unprecedented.

Here's what I'm suggesting to you, remember to call the name of God all day long, so you can hear that echo. You can do that while you're driving on the freeway. You can do it while you're riding the subway or the bus. You can do it while you're walking down the hallway at work. You can do it while you're folding the laundry. There is no task that you're doing that you can't, in your mind, call upon the name of God and align yourself with the Divine.

This is what we're doing. We're moving into a life that is truly prayer without ceasing, because every word that we say that we believe is a powerful word. It is a powerful word. It is how we bring things into manifestation in this world. Our thought combined with our belief is so powerful. Remember, all thought produces form at some level.

If you find yourself thinking thoughts of pain and degradation, suffering, thoughts of lack and attack, interrupt that pattern the minute that you notice it and you will notice it. Because if you are Partnered UP, if you start in the beginning of your day or whenever you remember, to move into that partnership with the Higher Holy Spirit Self and say. “This day I give to you. I am your student this day. Instead of being a student of the ego today, I’m going to be a student of the great Love life. I’m going to be a student of the Lord. I am going to walk with God. I call upon God’s Name and on my own. In the name of the Beloved I AM that I AM, I declare I AM that I AM and I am willing to be led and guided, inspired and motivated by the Holy Spirit to choose Love. Thank you, God. Amen.”

Very simple prayers that throughout the day we will more clearly hear that voice of the Holy Spirit. It costs us nothing. All we have to do is remember. We always remember what’s important to us.

Right now, it’s time for me to remember to go to a break. You’re listening to Jennifer Hadley. In the break time, I encourage you to go to ACIMRetreat.com, see if you’re interested in the livestream from the Living A Course in Miracles’ Greek Retreat this week or you can go to LivingACourseinMiracles.com and sign up for the classes this week with Amy Torres and myself on Intuition.

We are living the Love, walking the talk, A Course in Miracles on Unity Online Radio. I’ll be right back.

Thank you for tuning in for A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace through practical application as we return to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Using Time More Effectively

Welcome back. I’m Jennifer Hadley. I’m so grateful to join with you today. We’re looking at Lesson 183: Calling upon God’s Name and on our own. I’m coming to you from the Greek Island of Andros, where I’m leading a retreat here, the Living A Course in Miracles’ Greek Retreat with Gary Renard, and Maria Felipe, Patricia Black, and about 40 other people. We’re having a great time. You can get the livestream and the archive of all the teachings at ACIMRetreat.com or LivingACourseinMiracles.com.

We're talking about a simple practice here of calling upon God's Name beginning our day, dedicating ourselves to waking up because so many spiritual student say again and again and again that if they had more time, they would have a deeper spiritual practice.

This was me. I can't even begin to tell you how many times I said and thought because I believed something that was totally false, I believed that my spiritual awakening was dependent upon time, so I just kept making time real and making time real and making time real.

One of the most common things that people talk about and transcend in my Masterful Living classes, in my Finding Freedom classes is they begin to come out from time. They begin to realize that time is not happening to them, that they can use time very well. This is one of the greatest gifts that we have.

In fact, there's a wonderful quote from Martin Luther King, Jr. in the letter he wrote from the Birmingham Jail, the letter he wrote on toilet paper. It's a beautiful letter. You can look it up on the internet. One of the things that he said in there, he said that people think that things will be healed by time. Time has no healing power. It has no volition of its own. What has healing power, as Dr. King said, is men and women who become tireless coworkers with God. That is what is healing. Time is not healing. What Dr. King said so beautifully is he said, I've come to think that the people of this generation, the good people are not using time as effectively as the people who are interested in separation, segregation, and punishment, hurting others that they seemed to use time more effectively than the people of goodwill. Let the people of goodwill use time more effectively.

For me, the most effective use of time is spiritual practice, it is forgiveness. For me, it is these two main things that I practice all day long, calling upon the name of God, so that I remember who I AM that I AM, and so hearing that echo then, right?

"God's Name can not be heard without response, nor said without an echo in the mind that calls you to remember."

I'm interested in hearing that echo all throughout my day, so I call upon the name of God all throughout my day. I've learned to begin each day by saying to the Higher Holy Spirit Self. “You guide me, you lead me. This is your day. I am only interested in the thoughts I think with God.”

Obviously, there’s no part of this practice that really takes much time or money. No money involved. You don’t need a guru or a teacher. You don’t even need A Course in Miracles. Your little willingness is the key to everything. Your little willingness is what’s going to get it done. Your little willingness is all that you need to focus on. I love it.

Now, I love this next sentence here, too, in Lesson 183.

“Say Gods’ Name, and you invite the angels to surround the ground on which you stand, and sing to you as they spread out their wings to keep you safe, and shelter you from every worldly thought that would intrude upon your holiness.”

A Release from Fear

Alright. In the Fear and Conflict Section, Chapter 2 of the Text, Jesus says that He cannot take fear from us. Can’t do it. Cannot do it. He says right there in Paragraph 4:

“The correction of fear is your responsibility. When you ask for release from fear, you are implying that it is not. You should ask, instead, for help in the conditions that have brought the fear about. These conditions always entail a willingness to be separate. At that level you can help it. You are much too tolerant of mind wandering, and are passively condoning your mind’s miscreations.”

Remember earlier, I was talking about the I AM statements, how powerful they are, and that we make this I AM statements that miscreate. He says just a little bit further in Paragraph 4 of the Fear and Conflict Section in Chapter 2:

“The correction is always the same. Before you choose to do anything, ask me if your choice is in accord with mine. If you are sure that it is, there will be no fear.

Fear is always a sign of strain, arising whenever what you want conflicts with what you do.”

If you want the Peace of God, but you’re choosing thoughts of lack and attack, can you see how there’s a conflict there? If you want to experience the Abundance of God, yet you choose thoughts of lack and limitation, and you energize them with your words, can you not see that there is a conflict there? If I’m thinking. “Okay, I don’t know how I’m going to pay my rent. I don't know how I'm going to pay my bills. I don't know how I'm going to make it through this month financially." and you start thinking. "I am broke. I am without resources. I am destitute. I'm desperate. I'm stupid. I'm a loser. I'm foolish." then you start thinking of all the things that you did or that others did that you think contributed to your desperate financial state and you're blaming those things, and then—this is the most common thing in the world, because I know I used to do it.

What you're doing is you're taking that I AM statement that is so powerful and you're fully energizing your belief. You're affirming your belief in lack and limitation. You're affirming your belief that you don't have. You're affirming your belief that you're bad, stupid, a loser, wrong, and that others are. You're not only using the power of the I AM statement to call into being more lack and more limitation, affirming the negative beliefs, you're also affirming your unforgiveness, the resentment, the regret, the guilt, the blame, the shame. It basically is a big pot of stew that will absolutely give you heartburn and make you suffer. I know. I used to do it all the time.

But instead of doing that, what do we do? We call upon God's Name. In the name of God, Beloved I AM that I AM. In the name of God, Beloved I AM that I AM. I declare I am willing to know the truth that sets me free. In the name of Beloved God I AM that I AM, I am willing to release all that no longer serves my path of Love, my life of Love. I am willing to remember my true identity is the Son of God and I am willing to know my brothers and sisters in their true identity as the Son of God because all is One.

I don't think I can say it enough.

"God's Name can not be heard without response, nor said without an echo in the mind that calls you to remember. Say God's Name, and you invite the angels to surround the ground on which you stand, and sing to you as they spread out their wings to keep you safe, and shelter you from every worldly thought that would intrude upon your holiness."

Yes. Doesn't that sound so much better than being afraid and worried? What Jesus tells us in the Fear and Conflict Section is that fear is of our making that's why He can't take it from us. Fear is the natural result of having conflicted thoughts. "I want the Peace of God, but I'm not willing to think the thoughts that will bring the Peace of God into my awareness. I want the Peace of God. I want the Prosperity of God. I want the Love of God. I want the Abundance of God, but I'm not willing to think the thoughts that align me with those spiritual qualities.” Therein lies the conflict. Then if we start saying, “I am afraid because of the circumstances and the situations and relationships.” and whatever is going on in the world, then we’re going to feel lost in the world because we’re going to start managing, manipulating and coping with the situations in the world.

“I’m Never Upset for the Reason I Think”

This is what A Course in Miracles teachers are referring when they say don’t make the world real. Don’t make what we see, so we think with the body’s eyes. Don’t make the circumstances, situations, relationships of the world real by saying they are the cause of your upset. Remember, I’m never upset for the reason I think.

What I’ve learned to tell myself is I’m never upset for the reason I think. I’m always upset when I choose to judge. Do I like being upset? Not anymore. I used to like being upset. I used to like being upset because it made me feel like I was alive. Literally, when I was totally identified with the ego, being upset felt like it was my power. It was how I could control, manage and manipulate people and bend them to my will. Now, I know how painful that is. Now, I know I do not wish to do that. I wish instead to be like an earth angel.

Angels Surrounding the Ground

In this last Section, it says, “Say God’s Name...” This is Lesson 183, Paragraph 2.

“Say God’s Name and you invite the angels to surround the ground on which you stand, and sing to you as they spread out their wings to keep you safe, and shelter you from every worldly thought that would intrude upon your holiness.”

This is what Jesus is telling us here is what is going to happen every time we call God’s Name. I cannot imagine a better motivation for having a minute-by-minute spiritual practice. “In the name of God, Beloved I AM that I AM. I am willing to know the truth that sets me free. I am willing to lay all these weapons of mass destruction, negativity, blame, shame, regret, resentment, unforgiveness to the ground. I am willing to let them go. I am only interested in the thoughts I think with God. Let God thoughts filled my mind now.”

See, these are the kinds of things that I think while I'm walking down the street, while I'm driving in traffic, while I'm going to the bathroom. Hey, I'm just keeping it real here and telling you what I do. While I'm cooking the food, going up and down the stairs. I really am interested in only thinking the thoughts I think with God.

Now, I do think about other things like. "Okay. I need to go to the grocery store later. What time is it?" Of course, I do that, but just keep bringing yourself back to. "In the name of God, Beloved I AM that I AM. I am willing to be holy loving. I'm willing to let the Holy Spirit lead and guide me through every moment." Would you remember to do that if you knew that you would also receive as a benefit an echo in the mind that calls you to remember your true identity? Would you remember to do that throughout the day if you knew that? As soon you did, the angels would surround the ground of which you stand and sing to you as they spread out their wings to keep you safe and shelter you from every worldly thought that would intrude upon your holiness. Well, we'll see, won't we? We'll see.

What I love about A Course in Miracles is Jesus tells us over and over and over again so many simple ways to give what I call the Holy Spirit the heavy lifting, so many simple ways. He tells us over and over again, you hardly have to do anything, just a little bit of willingness. If you're a spiritual student who has been reading a lot of books, taking a lot of classes, listening to a lot of stuff, but you still have not been inspired to have a deep spiritual practice, you may not understand what a deep spiritual practice is because this is what it is. This is what all my classes are about. It's about joining together with me because, to me, it's more fun to go with someone else. It's more fun to go with a group. I like that. I'm a networker. I'm someone who likes to pull people together which is exactly what we're doing on the Living A Course in Miracles Greek Retreat this week.

Alright, it's time for me to go to a break. I'm Jennifer Hadley and you're listening to A Course in Miracles on Unity Online Radio. I'll be right back.

You've been listening to A Course in Miracles living the Love, walking the talk with Reverend Jennifer Hadley.

If you have a question or comment about today's program or if you'd like to join the discussion, visit us on Facebook at A Course in Miracles Pledge, where you can join a community of like-minded people, who have pledged to live A Course in Miracles every day in every way.

Now, back to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Repeating God's Name

Thanks for joining me again. I'm Jennifer Hadley. As I've said earlier in the show, I'm coming to you from Greece, the island of Andros, where I'm hosting the Living A Course in Miracles Greek Retreat. You can watch us on livestream. If you'd like to learn about that, go to ACIMRetreat.com. ACIMRetreat.com. By the way, I'm working on a retreat in Mexico in February. Mexico in February. Stay tune for information about that. We're finishing up the negotiations now. I think that'll be a lot of fun. Escape the winter, come to Mexico in February. Wouldn't that be nice? A week at a resort.

I'm telling you, we're having such a good time here in Greece. We were Greek dancing last night. Of course, the food is fantastic. Everybody is just enjoying the food so much, and the company. I love getting together with like-minded souls. It's such a powerful blessing. Oh, my goodness. We're doing that deep work together. You can join us on livestream on ACIMRetreat.com.

Now, Lesson 183, Paragraph 3, it says. "Repeat God's Name, and all the world responds by laying down illusions. Every dream the world holds dear has suddenly gone by, and where it seemed to stand you find a star; a miracle of grace. The sick arise, healed of their sickly thoughts. The blind can see; the deaf can hear. The sorrowful cast off their mourning, and the tears of pain are dried as happy laughter comes to bless the world."

This is the benefit that you get to share by doing this simple practice that I am talking about here today. It cost you nothing. It's very simple. You can train your mind to do it all day long. You see, A Course in Miracles is a mind training program. That's what the curriculum is all about, so with the ego—the ego is a mind training system, too, and we have learned it very, very, very well.

As Jesus tells us in A Course in Miracles, we have learned it and over learned and it relearned it again, and to the point where we think we can't learn to remember our true identity and the true identity of our brothers and sisters.

He says. "But you have already built the most amazing testimony to your learning ability and it is the entire world that you see." He is saying that the Holy Spirit, that Jesus will lead you all the way through everything that is necessary for you to undo the world if you're willing, if you Partner UP, as I like to call it.

When we repeat the name of God, it says. "The little names have lost their meaning. No temptation but becomes a nameless and unwanted thing before God's Name. Repeat God's Name, and see how easily you will forget the names of all the gods you valued." All the false idols. "They have lost the name of god you gave them. They become anonymous and valueless to you, although before you let the name of God replace their little names, you stood before them worshipfully, naming them as gods."

Repeat the name of God, and call upon your Self, Whose Name is God's. Repeat God's Name, and all the tiny, nameless things on earth slip into right perspective."

Wow! It's not that simple. I mean, that complicated. It's not rocket science. It is so very simple.

In Paragraph 6, it says. "Practice but this today; repeat God's Name slowly again and still again. Become oblivious to every name but God's. Hear nothing else. Let all your thoughts become anchored on this. No other word we use except at the beginning, when we say today's idea but once. And then God's Name becomes our only thought, our only word, the only thing that occupies our minds, the only wish we have, the only sound with any meaning, and the only Name of everything that we desire to see; of everything that we would call our own."

"Thus do we give an invitation which can never be refused."

So simple, you can even just say. "God, God, God." Now, one thing I would like to share with you is that I used to have an absolute aversion to the name God. I used to have such an aversion to the name of God and here's why. I know it's pretty common. I think it's really worth sharing about.

Giving Up the Heavy Lifting

I was not raised in a religion or as a Christian. My parents did not really talk about God or believe in God, although my grandparents did. From the time I was quite young, I had this really intense upset about organized religion and particularly, I somehow understood that the Christians had twisted the teachings of Jesus, and were using them to hurt people, and I saw that amongst my Catholic friends growing up. I saw in my friends who were Catholic that their parents, who were supposedly strict Catholics, they didn't actually follow the teachings of Jesus, so they were not forgiving. They were blaming and shaming and they were unkind and not compassionate. I really developed an aversion towards it and that was something that I had to work out.

Of course, now I know that really the aversion that I had to all of that was some residue of a past life where I behaved that way, probably many past lives where I was a nun, a monk, a priest, whatever, and I was the one who was perpetuating evil in the name of Jesus, because, obviously, people have been tortured, wars have been fought in the name of Jesus.

What I did was I released all that and how did I do that? By giving it to the Holy Spirit to do the heavy lifting. I decided that I really wanted to take that name of God back in my heart. While the world might associate the name God with an old man in the sky whose vindictive and punishing and unforgiving, et cetera, and judgmental, I decided to change my mind about it in order to help heal that thought in the group mind because all is One. This is where I've learned to practice total responsibility as deeply and profoundly healing. I encourage you to look at. "Do you have an aversion to the word 'God'?"

I know that A Course in Miracles calls God the Father. I think of God as Father-Mother God, Father-Mother God, Divine Mother, Divine Father, and not just a Father. The Holy Spirit really as that Divine Feminine Presence truly. I believe that Jesus came to restore that Divine Feminine in our awareness and to assist us, lead us, and guide us to having that relationship with the Holy Spirit, and having balance Divine Mother, Divine Father, Father-Mother God, so Working with the Holy Spirit, working with the Father God. We're figuring it out, but the thing is, is we don't have to figure it out. We allow our minds to remember the truth and the truth will indeed set us free. Yes. Let us remember the name of God all day long as our healing spiritual practice. Yes.

If you like help with that, obviously, I offer a lot of classes and things at JenniferHadley.com. I also have a free Forgiveness workshop on the homepage at JenniferHadley.com, How to Get Over It? Totally free at JenniferHadley.com.

I also—I'm doing the Living A Course in Miracles Classes this week with Amy Torres and our topic this week is. Miracles and Intuition. Our whole series is on miracles and allowing the miracle. Of course, the Living A Course in Miracles livestream of the Greek Retreat at ACIMRetreat.com.

Closing Prayer

Alright. It's time to pray. I invite you to place your hand on your heart with me and take this deep breath of Love and gratitude as we say in the name of God. Beloved I AM that I AM, I declare that I am willing to release all that is false. I am willing to remember the truth that sets me free. We Partner UP with the Higher Holy Spirit Self and we give the Holy Spirit the heavy lifting. We allow the angels to surround us, to sing to us, and to spread out their wings to keep us safe and shelter us from every worldly thought that would intrude upon our holiness.

In grace and gratitude, we joyfully let it be, and so it is. Amen. Amen, Amen, Amen.

I'll be in Greece again next week for the whole month of September, so I look forward to more to come. Mwah! I love you. Have a great week.
