Stop Managing and Coping!

Welcome to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk with Reverend Jennifer Hadley, a beloved teacher of the Course, who has helped thousands learn how to express their beliefs from moment to moment in their everyday lives. Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace through practical application.

Here is your host, Reverend Jennifer Hadley.

Jennifer Bonjour! Happy New Year. Woo-hoo! Yes. The New Year still has that New Year smell. I love it. It's so good. Wow! There's so much activation and healing happening right now. Let's begin. Let's begin.

Opening Prayer

Placing our hand on our heart, we are grateful and we're thankful to open ourselves to the unlimited, unprecedented Love. Yes, we're accepting our blessings of Love right now. We're accepting that our life is a life of Love. This is a trajectory that we're on. We are flying high in Love.

We're claiming our true spiritual identity. We're willing to be authentically loving, authentically ourselves, our true identity is pure, perfect, whole, complete, pristine, awake and alive in us, and we're claiming it and sharing the benefits with everyone because we're One with them.

In grace and gratitude, we let it be, and so it is. Amen. Amen, Amen.

Working with the Teachings

Yes, I love it. I love it. So much is going on. Hey, listen, a couple of things I want to say before we really jump in here and that is a trained mind can accomplish everything. In other words, a trained mind can be the savior of the world. A trained mind, a healed mind is so powerful. Let us dedicate ourselves to that this year. Let us dedicate ourselves to something that which is truly, truly helpful, truly, truly valuable. Being our true selves, living that life of Love. It does take mind training, so every day affords us mind training.

We make many, many thousands of decisions every day. If you make a choice every five seconds, you're making thousands and thousands of choices a day. Let's start to recognize those moments of intensity, and frustration, and fear, and worry, and doubt. Our opportunities to seek the Kingdom first, we've forgotten all about the Kingdom if we're feeling upset and untrained mind can accomplish nothing.

One of the things I love in the Workbook is that Jesus tells us you don't even have to believe this stuff. Don't worry your little mind about—not your little mind. But don't worry your precious self about figuring it out, believing it, even understanding it, just work with the teachings. That is great advice, because it means that anyone can start anywhere. Yes. Yes.

One of the great things about A Course in Miracles, too, is the teachings apply to every situation in every circumstance of our life. It says that right in the Introduction that this is the Workbook that you really can live and work and apply. The more diligent you are, the more expansive your results will be.

Now, many students are confused, and I've had—like I remembered Nouk Sanchez talked about this in the Living A Course in Miracles series that she studied A Course in Miracles for 20 years before she realized that the ego was driving her studies and her practice.

Let's put that whole kind of experience, so that we don't have to worry and wonder about it on the altar. We just give that whole worry and concern about letting the ego drive our spiritual practice to God, to the Higher Self, the Holy Self to Love itself to be purified.

An Aspiration to Practice Love

We're going to simply rest in an aspiration for the year to practice Love, to be willing to no longer value that which is truly unvaluable, invaluable.

We're going to value that which is invaluable and no longer value that which is worthless and meaningless.

Because here's the thing, we can have the whole fullness of the Kingdom. It's pre-installed and we can experience that Abundance and that Prosperity and that healing of the physical body, the healing of the mind is where it begins. All healing is at the level of the mind.

Perhaps, this year is your aspiration. You might decide just to understand that fully and to apply it to your life, to believe it with your whole heart by the end of the year that all healing is at the level of the mind, and to train your mind to fully reveal that as its understanding. That is a major accomplishment. Everything that you need in order to do that, to know how to do that will be revealed to you if you're willing, if you're interested.

That's a great thing about A Course in Miracles because it's a program to get it done. It's a Curriculum to get it done, working it day by the day. Now, the important thing to remember about working the A Course in Miracles Curriculum is not about reading it. No, no, no, no. Anyone can read it, right? Haven't we all done that? We read it, we don't even know what we read. We say, "Yes, I do the lesson today. It's about living it, taking it into all those moments." That's why it's that kind of a Curriculum.

What I am inviting to do this year is to just begin with a recognition that, literally, this year you can stop playing small. What does playing small really mean? It means managing and coping with fear. It means managing and coping with the circumstances and situations of your life. That's what playing small is. My phone!

Playing small is managing and coping with the circumstances of your life, instead of transcending, transmuting and healing the consciousness that called them forth. Because when we do the healing at the level of the mind, everything in form has to show up differently.

Healing at the Level of the Mind

I have to say in the last month or so, I've heard from so many people who took my Finding Freedom Class last year, who took Masterful Living last year are going to take Masterful Living this year, all these people from all over the world, who have shared their healing with me, with our community, that they've had miraculous results. Some people have had blow-your-hair-back miraculous results, and some people have had noticeably miraculous results.

The more that we invest in being loving and being a healing presence in our own mind, in our own life, the more miraculous our results are.

I used to spend so much of my precious energy managing and coping with fear, managing and coping with unworthiness, with regret, managing and coping with resentment. Yes, going over and over in my mind the thoughts of anger and revenge, angry with myself, anger with others. I don't know about you, but I used to have so much of my bandwidth, my mental bandwidth, was preoccupied with worry about stuff and with wondering how am I going to do it. I didn't even know that I was worrying because I didn't feel like I was a worrier, but I was always trying to manage and cope with things, always trying to make things be different by moving things around in the world, instead of by doing the healing of the level of the mind, and then the mind is healed, so the world has to change.

That is one of the coolest thing that people learn how to do in Finding Freedom and Masterful Living is they learned how to heal their mind and then they see their life healing as a direct result. Literally, what's happening is they're proving spiritual principle. They're proving God in their life. A Course in Miracles is a program to heal your life and to get it done. Yes, it is, and it works. It works.

Aligning with the Teachings

I started working A Course in Miracles 10 years before I found it, before I even read it. What's taught in here is the Curriculum that I started to get in my mind because I started to align with the teachings of Martin Luther King, Jr., and Gandhi, and Jesus. I really began to align with those teachings and those teachings are the teachings of A Course in Miracles. I began to look at everything and see, "Oh, wow! Okay, everything I'm experiencing in this world is an illusion. Okay, everything in this world that I'm experiencing is a projection of my mind. Okay. Including all my relationship, all my finances, my physical health and well-being, my home, my job, everything, projection of my mind, so I'm going to work at the level of the mind." I started to do that. I started to change my mind and feel progressively more, more free. But it wasn't until I made the decision and the commitment to truly live the truth, to live the teachings of A Course in Miracles that everything begin to change for me.

I won't say that it's easy in the beginning, but it is easy now. It's not hard at all now, not at all. There's still some challenges, but I enjoy them. They're not a burden to me. That's why the only thing that I teach and the only thing that I can offer is sharing how to stay on that path, how to seek the Kingdom first, to be committed to doing it, to be committed to cultivating a pristine awareness of the truth, to staying in that mind training and not giving up. That's what I'm committed to. I'm committed to supporting people and finding the pathway that works for them, the spiritual practice that works for them, the Curriculum that works for them. I am awakening to the truth. Yes, because it's really the only thing worth sharing. That's what I keep my whole focus on.

Actually, in this New Year, one of the things I'm going to be doing is I'm going to start offering training for people who would like to be spiritual counselors. For people who would like to do that and take that training—so I'm a religious science practitioner by training. I'm a Science of Mind minister by training. I'm New Thought practitioner and minister by training.

For me, it wasn't until I committed truly Living A Course in Miracles that my mind really opened up. For me, the New Thought teachings of A Course in Miracles are the most helpful teachings that I have discovered. To me, they're completely in alignment with the teachings of Charles and Myrtle Fillmore, the teachings of Mary Baker Eddy, the teachings of Ernest Homes, Phineas Quimby, Emma Curtis Hopkins, and all these great New Thought teachers, Jesus. They're all in alignment with A Course in Miracles. A Course in Miracles is alignment with them.

For me, I have learned so much in my years as a spiritual counselor, because I got my license as a practitioner in year 2000, and then I became I minister in 2006. Literally, these teachings of A Course in Miracles, they have been the refinement of my mind.

Offering Support System

What I feel I can most be truly helpful with is for anybody who's interested in the mind training to offer them a support system to help them stay committed, stay dedicated, stay devoted to really do the work in a joyful community that's having fun, that's not taking ourselves too seriously, that's not practicing shame and blame, and is really loving and supportive. I have to say because we all hold this commitment to practice non-judgment. It's very challenging. It's not without challenges. You can be as committed or not in our group as you'd like, but it is a container for people who'd like to increase their commitment, increase their devotion to walking the talk of Love. You can do this with or without Masterful Living.

Obviously, we've got A Course in Miracles and you can start your own study group. I have wonderful study group support for you. If you'd like to start a study group this year, you can go to LivingACourseinMiracles.com. We've got lots of support for you there. We've got a study group listing. You can list a study group. You can list that you'd like to start a study group, so that people can find you and join with you at LivingACourseinMiracles.com. You can listen to the archive of how to start a study group, how to facilitate a study group, how to promote a study group. We cover all of these things in our archive, our library, a study group support calls. Of course, we'll have more classes this year.

For me, Masterful Living is the very best thing that I offer. It is a yearlong Course where I hold your hand and walk with you and offer you the Curriculum that is what I have done that has helped me and helped me so many others. Every year, it's more expansive. It's more creative. It's more playful. It's more fun. No matter what you do this year, find a Curriculum that will work for you. Find whatever it takes to somehow deepen your spiritual practice of living the love and walking the talk. Find spiritual community that you can do it with, whether it's an online community or an in-person community, or it's just one person that you're committed to being transparent and authentic with. There is no greater healing than to be transparent and authentic with someone who's willing to do that with you.

It is a great gift of Love to be transparent and authentic, to even be able to have the courage and the strength of mind and the insight and the foresight to be able to say to your loved ones, "Right now, in my human experience, I want to blame you. I want to shame you. I want to attack you. I want to make you wrong. But in my spiritual alignment, I only want to love you. I only want to support you. I only want to know you as the presence of Love in my life. Right now, I'm struggling. Will you help me?"

What a beautiful gift to give someone, to give your family members and friends, to be able to feel empowered enough to say something like that. That's what I'm dedicating myself to, is supporting myself and others and living the Love like that. So beautiful.

I've got free classes and you can even start Masterful Living Class right now. People will be joining us all the way through the month of March. We've got retreats coming up, all kinds of things in Masterful Living. It's a yearlong Course to live the Love and walk the talk, and to remember your true identity, waking up together. JenniferHadley.com and the Masterful Living page, check it out. I'm going to break. I'm Jennifer Hadley and we are living the Love and walking the talk with A Course in Miracles right here on Unity Online Radio and I'll be right back.

Thank you for tuning in for A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace through practical application as we return to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

How Masterful Living Started

Yes. Enjoying this beginning of the year, feeling this beginning of the year expansion, what a blessing it is. I was sharing that one of the things that I do with my year is I'm offering my yearlong Masterful Living Class, and 2014 is, I can't believe it, it's the 6th year of Masterful Living. I'll just be honest with you that when I first got the idea to do this yearlong class, I didn't feel like I could do it or that I wanted to do it. The intuition, the inspiration came to me and I said to myself, "I can't do that. I can't commit to a yearlong class. No, no, no, no. That's too big. That's too extensive. I can't do that." But my intuition said to me, just begin. The Holy Spirit will do the heavy lifting. Just begin.

I have to say that I felt like I needed to do it in order to prove God to myself, to prove what it really means to give the heavy lifting to the Holy Spirit. The only reason that I was thinking that I couldn't do it, really, was that I thought it would be a burden to do a class every week. It's not every week. We take a few weeks off, of course. But I thought it would be too big a burden. But then I realized, "You know what, I'm going to be teaching some way, somehow every week anyway. Why not teach a class that builds on itself?”

I really began to feel intuitively that there would be so much expansion for me if I said yes to it, because I would be really placing my faith and trust in God. Instead of what I perceived as the one who’s managing and coping with my life, instead I’m going to move into that trust and faith that whatever is needed will be provided, whether it’s money, or insight, or Clarity, or ideas, or help, clerical assistance, whatever it is will be provided to me. You know what? It was. It was. It absolutely was. That’s such a blessing to me to know that that’s true. Yeah. Because I proved it and I’ve proved it year after year after year, and so many people have.

A Total Commitment to the Course

I’d like to share with you just some of the stories that I remember from people who did this work last year, because the work that we do in Masterful Living, it really is the work of Living A Course in Miracles. It definitely is. Because all throughout the year, what I see is that in our Masterful Living community, we have people who have never studied A Course in Miracles starting to study it. We’ve met people who have been studying it for a long time. But it never really lived it and applied it to their lives, taking it deep into their life. We see all this different kinds of A Course in Miracles students joining together and igniting to live the Love and walk the talk.

I have to say that some of the most miraculous things that I heard last year consistently from people is this, that they improved the quality of their relationships. Either attracted new Love into their life in many forms in terms of work and aligning with the work that they would most like to do and deeply desire to do, and finally gave themselves permission to do, and manifest it. They experience more Love through no longer sabotaging their relationships with unkindness and controlling and manipulating and judging.

One of the most important things to me was people shared that they had experiences of being with family members that they hadn’t been with in a long time and having the most loving get-togethers that they ever had in their whole life, and that they noticed that where they had gone into those times of gathering with family members with trepidation and worry, that once they actually got together with their family, all that worry that it wouldn't be fun, it would be unpleasant, that feelings would get hurt, that unkind things would be said and done, all of that fell away. What they actually experienced was that they were more receptive to Love than ever before and they were actually able to allow people to love them, like never before. People who maybe took advantage of them or controlled and manipulated them in the past, now were appreciating them, loving them, sharing with them. That over and over again, people told me that they had experiences where in the past, they would've gone angry and resentful and gotten agitated or fearful. They felt calm and relaxed. They felt loving and joyful. Some of the people in the class had major healings in their bodies. Some people actually did not, but they had major healings in their emotional body, their mental body.

I'm saying all this to say that when you commit even a little bit, like even 10% to living the Love and walking the talk, your life is going to change. What about a total commitment? I know it seems radical, but that was the best gift I ever gave myself was to put my whole life on the altar and say, "God, take it off. Do with it what you will. Take my health, take my wealth, take my relationships, take everything. All I'm interested is in experiencing You as my life, as everything." Yes. Yes, yes, yes.

I'm interested in supporting people who would like to do spiritual counseling at this level. My yearlong Masterful Living classes are requirement. I'm figuring out what all the things are, but what I know for myself is the greatest gift I've given myself is to be very rigorous with my mind training. Being willing to really work at the level of the mind, and really accept that all healing is at the level of the mind.

I've learned that as a minister, as a practitioner, I can't really deeply, profoundly help people if I don't do my own healing work. What I have seen over the years is that other ministers and practitioners just like me, if we don't live the Love and walk the talk, we don't feel worthy of Abundance, we don't feel worthy of Prosperity, we don't feel worthy of having counseling clients, and people participating in our ministry. We simply don't feel worthy of it.

For instance, actually, it's interesting. I started the Living A Course in Miracles classes in 2010, so I started prepping for the first class to be offered in the spring of 2011. When I started doing that work in 2010, I think maybe a thousand people were following me on e-mail, and probably a lot of those e-mails weren't very good.

I was offering a daily prayer then, a pre-recorded daily prayer. I record a new prayer every day, just like I do now. I've been doing that pretty much every day since 2007. I think that I had maybe a thousand people or something like that listening to my A Course in Miracles study group online by 2010. Now, over 22,000 people have joined with me. The Course is not a numbers game because numbers are just symbols, right? All of that enrollment in the classes and things like that, it's just symbol, really, of, "I'm offering the truth." That's what it feels like to me because I'm interested in the truth.

My number one thing for 2014 is to clarify my own mind to awaken to my true identity and to live as an awakened being. That is my trajectory for this year. I'm interested in walking with other people who would like to do that as well. To me, that's how I can be most truly helpful.

Seeing Beyond the Illusion

I'm going to invite you to place your hand on your heart right now and take a deep breath of Love and gratitude with me. With your hand on your heart, opening your mind to be wholehearted, saying, "Yes," to Infinite Love, Infinite Intelligence.

Let us ask the question, what is the highest aspiration that I can set for myself? What is the highest aspiration that I can attain to this year? It's not about making anything happen. It's not about resolving to make anything happen. It's about, what is it that at the end of the year you would like to fully embody?

What spiritual qualities would you like to fully embrace and embody with your whole life? Spiritual qualities of Love, Peace, Harmony, Prosperity, Wholeness, Freedom, Joy, Wisdom, Clarity, Abundance, Purity, Creativity, Constancy, and more. They're all our true identity. Let us focus on fully embodying them, fully revealing them, fully embracing them with our mind. All healing is at the level of the mind.

Let us live in a healing space. Let us be the Love of God wherever we go. Let us see Peace in everything. Let us see God in everything that we see. Let us declare that above all else, we'd like to truly see the truth and know the truth that sets us free, and to stop playing small, to stop identifying with the little self, a small self, a selfish self, a lacking self.

The greatest way for us to be truly helpful is to wake-up. What I know is that the thing that keeps us playing small is making something else more important than our awakening awareness. Anytime we make waking up to our true identity which is accepting our Atonement for ourselves, accepting the Atonement for ourselves means, being willing to see beyond the illusion, to see that we're already holy, we're already perfect. Not just the saying, it's the truth. We're not just perfect, whole and complete. We are the Love of God. We are the Christ Light. We are the Light that lightens up every man, woman and child in this world. We are the Higher Self. We are the Holy Self.

A Gift of Authenticity and Transparency

Wouldn't it be wonderful to feel that in every moment? You can be transparent. You can be authentic. Yes. That's a gift, to be transparent, to be authentic, to be truly loving, to know that your knee-jerk reaction—somebody said that with their aspiration a few years ago on Masterful Living. That my knee-jerk reaction is to be holy loving. Yes.

It doesn't help to pretend that we're holier than we are, holier than we think we are, because all that does is let people know that we think it's okay to be a liar and a fake if we're pretending to be holier than we think we are, than we believe we are. Let us recognize we're already perfectly holy.

But you see, if we're self-medicating and self-sabotaging, that's not how we would treat the Holy One, right? If we're attacking and judging and berating and shaming and blaming, that's not how we would treat the Holy One. We don't have to figure out how.

A Course in Miracles will walk us through it. The Higher Holy Spirit Self will hold our hand every nanosecond of every day. It will be revealed to us. It's about making a commitment to be willing to choose Love more and more frequently. Yes. Yes. Feel that in your heart. Feel what it would be like if you really made that your number one priority this year. And to really believe that if you were committed to being loving and more loving moment by moment authentically, right where you are, where the rubber meets the road that you could really be the Love of your life and release the habits of feeling stuck and managing and coping with your unworthiness thoughts, and instead be truly, truly helpful waking up, accepting the Atonement for ourselves. Yes. Write down your aspiration, hold it before you.

I'm Jennifer Hadley and I'm inviting you to check out the Masterful Living page, free classes there, how to do this, and the yearlong Masterful Living Course starting with New Year's Intentions and going all the way through the year creating a spiritual practice that works for you, so you can live it and be the Love of your life. Experiencing the Kingdom being added unto you, all of it being added unto you, this truly it is pre-installed. Let us seek the Kingdom first together.

I'm Jennifer Hadley. You're listening to A Course in Miracles on Unity Online Radio where we're living the Love, we're walking the talk.

You've been listening to A Course in Miracles living the Love, walking the talk with Reverend Jennifer Hadley.

If you have a question or comment about today's program or if you'd like to join the discussion, visit us on Facebook at A Course in Miracles Pledge, where you can join a community of like-minded people, who have pledged to live A Course in Miracles every day in every way.

Now, back to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Seeking the Kingdom First

Oh, so we're back. We're back. We're committing ourselves to walking the talk and living the Love. Yes. One of the things I can tell you is that I, right now, I can barely remember what it literally felt like to be in that place of feeling stuck and feeling like, "I couldn't hold a commitment to being loving and I was on just a moment-by-moment basis, constantly managing and coping."

All of my clients, I was looking to get something from them because I felt I didn't have. I was definitely not living from the overflow. I did not feel relaxed or peaceful or harmonious or any of the life that I live now. It was such a different place to live in. So interesting to look back. I think that's one of the cool things about the end of one year. The beginning of another is we give ourselves permission to look at the overview and to look at the perspective.

The greatest gift I ever gave myself was to seek the Kingdom first and to step into that pledge in truly living A Course in Miracles, and living it with my whole heart. In the beginning it was really, really challenging to me.

I remember constantly saying to my spiritual friends, my spiritual family, “Can we get together and talk about God? I just want to have a more expanded conversation about God with some people who are doing this work.” I know that some people thought I was strange and I just love talking about God. Since then, of course, I’ve made many friends who are very similar like-minded, because like attracts like.

In 2012 and 2013, I spent a lot of time with David Hoffmeister and Gary Renard. I’m trying to think who else. A lot of different people who are really dedicated to living this teaching of Love and having it awakened in their mind.

As you’re rededicating yourself and making your choices for this year, let me just say that if in any way you feel that your life is painful or excruciating, it simply means that you’re believing things that aren’t actually true. It’s really that simple. It’s all of our suffering that has caused by believing things that aren’t true. Of course, all those beliefs that aren’t true are really judgments, they’re opinions. That’s what false beliefs are. They’re judgments and opinions.

The truth sets us free. The truth is what’s pre-installed in the Kingdom. Let us seek to understand, to know, to live, to align with, to embrace, and to embody that truth that sets us free. It is our liberation. It’s such a gift. To me, I can see now there’s no greater gift than the truth. The more I focused on that, the more my family is liberated. The more my friends are liberated. The more—my coworkers in this ministry are liberated. Yes. It’s all happening. I actually don’t even understand really how it happens except that it teaches me that all minds are joined.

Part of what A Course in Miracles helps us with is truly awakening to understand that our experience is an illusion and our freewill is an illusion, Divine Will is all that there truly is and that we’re already perfect, whole, and complete, and we can remember that. We can wake up to that.

I remember feeling, as a minister, as a new minister, that I didn’t know how to make it happen as a minister. I didn’t know how to be a successful Light worker, and build a successful practice, and be truly helpful. I didn’t know how to do any of those things. I made the decision to stop trying. Kind of radical. I decided to stop trying and only seek the Kingdom first.

As I started to say before the break, back in 2010, I got the inspiration to offer the Masterful Living, I mean Living A Course in Miracles Classes, and who knew that people were studying A Course in Miracles for as many as 30 years without ever really living it. I started to get a flood of letters from people who said, “Oh, my God! I’m finally understanding what it means to live it. I had no idea that I wasn’t living it. I just secretly thought it wasn’t working for me. Amazing. All because I followed Divine Guidance. I had no idea what I was really doing, but I did have an aspiration to wake up and to share my waking up journey with others in ways that were truly helpful and that has become my whole life.”

It doesn’t matter whether I’m playing Legos with my goddaughter, or Monopoly with my nephew, or getting my nails done with my niece, or going to the movies with my friend, or I’m making love, or making dinner. It does not matter. It’s all the same.

It’s about turning your whole life into a living practice of Love. How do you do that? You give the heavy lifting to the Holy Spirit. How do you do that? Seek and ye shall find. Seek the Kingdom first which is pre-installed. Yes.

I was sincerely willing to follow Divine Guidance and Inspiration. I decided to be masterful myself. I became obedient to the Divine Guidance and inspiration, to the Holy Spirit, the Voice of the Holy Spirit, the Voice of Jesus in my mind which is the Voice of the Higher Self, the I AM that I AM. My whole life experience, my whole life emotionally, mentally, physically, spiritually, financially, relationship, and career life, everything changed. Every single thing changed.

That’s what I see happening for folks who do this work with me, in community with me, whether it’s in Living A Course in Miracles Classes or it’s the Masterful Living Classes. Masterful Living Classes just started. It’s a yearlong class. People all over the world listening online, listening on the phone. Sometimes, listening in person. Sometimes, listening on the replay later, all different ways, by phone, by Skype, by all these different methods, we join together in Love for a single holy purpose, to seek the Kingdom first, which is within, and to experience everything being added unto us.

It was really hard for me when I didn't have like-minded friends. I'm so grateful to have thousands of like-minded friends now and spiritual partners on this journey of Love.

This year, aspire to wake up and be your true self. Live as though you actually believed the Law of Cause and Effect and stop energizing what you don't wish to see made manifest by your thinking and your words. Allow yourself to have a committed spiritual practice of purification. Hold yourself accountable and have a community that you practice with. There it is, a plan for success.

Closing Prayer

I invite you to place your hand on your heart. You can join in Masterful Living. I'm Jennifer Hadley. All the information is at JenniferHadley.com. Right now, with our hand in our heart, we're declaring that we're wholeheartedly available to Love and be loved. This is our true nature and we share the benefits with everyone.

In grace and gratitude, we allow it to be, fully and completely, and so it is. Amen. Amen, Amen.

I love you, and continue on this journey of Love. Happy, Happy New Year!

Thank you for tuning into A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk with Reverend Jennifer Hadley.
