Free Will and Divine Will

Welcome to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk with Reverend Jennifer Hadley, a beloved teacher of the course, who has helped thousands learn how to express their beliefs from moment to moment in their everyday lives. Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace through practical application.

Here is your host, Reverend Jennifer Hadley.

Jennifer Bonjour! Good morning, good morning! So happy to be with you in this week. I am on the East Coast, missing family celebrating my niece's graduation from high school today, very excited about that. Had a wonderful Father's Day with family. Very nice. Loving the backyard barbecue action as the summer is beginning here on the East Coast. You know, they had such a hard winter in the Northeast of America. Oh boy, I know that so many people just felt like they were being punished, last year was a very intense winter and this year even more intense. They're pretty happy that summer has arrived and it's really lovely. I'll be here on the East Coast for a few weeks.

I'm Jennifer Hadley and our topic this week is Divine Will and Free Will, "Free Will and Divine Will." Let's talk about this and as we always do beginning with a blessing.

Opening Prayer

I invite you to place your hand on your heart and take this breath of Love and Gratitude with me and be so grateful. Let's be so grateful that God is, so grateful that Love is. So grateful for A Course in Miracles. So grateful for the Oneness and Unity of all life. We Partner UP with the Higher Holy Spirit Self to remember that our true identity is perfect Love. It always has been and it always will be. This is unchangeable.

So grateful and thankful to recognize I AM that I AM and I AM One with the I AM Presence of all beings everywhere. So grateful that this is so. So grateful that we can forgive and release all judgments, all opinions, all regrets and resentments, all the meaning that we have ever made of anything, we can surrender it and release it forever. We give the heavy lifting to the Holy Spirit. Yes.

So grateful and so thankful to align with Love right now. In Grace and Gratitude, we share the benefits of our healing, our expansion, our walk of Love and our forgiveness with every one because we are One with them. So grateful and so thankful to joyfully let it be and so it is. Amen. Amen, Amen.

Understanding Free Will

Yes. Yes, yes, yes. In understanding freewill and divine will, I think the most important thing is to understand that there is no separation. Even if we can just comprehend that on an intellectual level or entertain it on an intellectual level, even if we can't yet or we haven't yet really understood it in our heart, if we can comprehend it in the intellect, that there is no separation. There never has been and there never will be, all is one. That our experience of separation is a projection of our mind. Our will is God's Will because there's only God. It's not possible to have a second will, a second power because there is no duality, there is only unity.

Fundamentally, we have to be willing to entertain that in order to understand freewill and divine will. In the text, in the introduction, right in that very first sentence, it says, this is A Course in Miracles. It is a required course.

“Only the time you take it is voluntary. Free will does not mean that you can establish the curriculum. It means only that you can elect what you want to take at given time. The Course does not aim at teaching the meaning of Love for that is beyond what can be taught. It does aim, however, at removing the blocks to the awareness of Love's presence, which is your natural inheritance. The opposite of Love is fear but what is all encompassing can have no opposite.”

Fear is not real. This is what its telling us here. Fear is not real. Fear is an appearance based on our projection and that projection has to be a belief in separation in order for us to experience fear.

Free will does not mean that you can establish the curriculum. Okay? This is A Course in Miracles, this is a required course. One way or another, whether we're studying A Course in Miracles or we've never heard of A Course in Miracles, it's a required course, we're all going to be studying this curriculum, taking this curriculum, running through this curriculum like a-- the image that comes into my mind is one of those obstacle courses, one of those—gosh, what do they call those courses, where you run to different things. You run the gauntlet of different things. That's what this experience of remembering our true identity often seems like.

Free will means only that you can elect what part of the curriculum you'd like to take at a given time. What part of the curriculum would you like to take at a given time? You know, there are some really good hints about the curriculum or not even hints, they're direct teachings about the curriculum. I think one of the clearest ones, that I have found the most helpful and if you've been listening to the show while you've heard me talk about it many, many, many, many times. That is the section in the Manual for Teachers, Chapter 4, which is entitled the "The Characteristics of God's Teachers" and the first characteristic is Trust and there is a two-page section in there called "Development of Trust, "Section A, "Development of Trust. "

In that section, it really tells us the stages of the curriculum, that we're going to go through. It also tells us how to make it easier on ourselves. The way to make it easier on ourselves is to use our free will to choose to let go, to let go of the meaning that we have made of things, to let go of our attachment to false idols. The more willingness that we have to let go the false idols and to let go the meaning we've made of things, the easier it's going to be for us, to navigate the curriculum and to experience the curriculum. That is a great use of your free will.

Free will means only that you can elect what you want to take at a given time. The way I think about free will is free will is what I experience in this 3D life of time and space, this experience of time and space. Free will is my ability to say, "Okay, right now, I'm going to choose forgiveness, right now, I'm going to choose compassion, right now, I mean choose resentment, right now I'm going to choose to regret. "Cancel those thoughts, not choosing those things but you can see this is how we can use our free will.

It says here, then the next section, the next paragraph in the introduction, it says,

“This course is therefore can be summed up very simply in this way: Nothing real can be threatened, nothing unreal exists. Herein, lies the Peace of God.”

Our challenge in the curriculum is to recognize or not really hear, although, it seems like we're here. We're here experientially, but not for real. We're having an experience here and it's similar to having an experience in a dream, where it seems so real and we can feel such intense emotions and we can feel such a visceral reaction but we're not really here. It's an illusion, it's dream projected.

If you can use your free will to elect what part of the curriculum, that you'd like to take, let's figure out how to elect to take the curriculum that will be most useful, parts of the curriculum that will be most useful and most helpful. This for me is one of the ways that I feel like I've been very successful in liberating myself from the oppression of suffering. I don't feel like I'm suffering anymore. There are experiences, I enjoy more than others but I don't feel like I'm being tortured any more. I don't wish, I could die any more, I don't feel like I'm suffering any more, I don't feel like I'm in pain any more.

If you can elect what part of the curriculum you'd like to learn, in what order, what would you choose? What would you choose? How about using your free will to choose Peace? I'm interested in learning the part of the curriculum that will leave me in Peace, uninterrupted Peace.

Now, one of the things, that you did start to recognize this you begin to make these choices and these decisions have this conversation as you begin to realize, “Oh, you know what? What I'm realizing is it is a holographic teaching, it is the holographic universe and everything is everything. If I choose Love, I am choosing Peace, if I choose truth, I am choosing Peace, if I choose compassion, I am choosing Peace, if I choose Patience, I am choosing Peace, if I choose harmony, I am choosing Peace, if I choose Prosperity, I am choosing Peace.” You begin to see how that works.

Origins of Separation

Now, in Chapter 2, which is called “The Separation and the Atonement.” Chapter 2, I think is my favorite chapter in the text. At least, it has been for a long time. I just find myself opening to it all the time, referring to it all the time and contemplating to it all the time. It talks about the origins of separation and so it's valuable too, for us to understand that separation occurred because we decided to choose to value separation more than unity. To value the thoughts of separation more than our awareness of unity.

In this Chapter 2, Section I, Paragraph 1, it says here,

“The inappropriate use of extension, or projection, occurs when you believe that some emptiness or lack exists in you, and that you can fill it with your own ideas instead of truth.”

This was where it began with valuing our own ideas instead of truth. What might our own ideas be? I think, that some of the most fundamental ideas that we have become enamored of that you can see right away create the experience of separation is using our free will. We started to think this is better than and this less than. This is better than and this is less than. Those thoughts of better than and less than and really becoming enamored in them, investing our belief, using our free will to invest our belief in that, instead of choosing truth is what led to this sense of separation becoming so pervasive.

Yeah, because then, we're starting to evaluate, you see, and label. If all is One and all is God, how could any part be better than or less than, it just doesn't make sense. You see, we became enamored of these opinions and judgments, these distortions. We started to become enamored of the things that we made in this world rather than the Love of God to search for identity. This is the true identify of our brothers and sisters, so rather than value the Love of God as our brothers and sisters. Rather than value the Love of God as our brothers and sisters and as ourselves, we got into this mindset of separation better than and less than and now we're finding our way back home.

It's time for me to take a break. I'm Jennifer Hadley and you're listening to A Course in Miracles on Unity Online Radio and as I send you to the break, I'm just remembering that I have still got my free class on 7 Simple Steps to Interrupt the Patterns of Fear on the Events page of JenniferHadley.com. Go, grab it while you can, it's a free download. 7 Simple Steps to Interrupt the Patterns of Fear.

You're listening to Unity Online Radio. I'm Jennifer Hadley and I'll be right back.

Thank you for tuning in for A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace through practical application as we return to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

What We Create, God Creates

Jennifer Alright. We're back. I'm Jennifer Hadley and we're talking about free will versus divine will here and recognizing that it's because we're One with God, God's Will is our will. There is no separate will. However, using our free will, we can choose what part of the curriculum that A Course in Miracles says that our life is that we would like to learn. We can recognize this pretty simply, can't we? Haven't we had so many opportunities to forgive? Haven't we had so many opportunities to be compassionate and loving and we've said, "No, not now." Basically, we're saying, "Yeah, I'm rejecting that part of the curriculum."

When we are choosing to hang on to unforgiveness, regret, resentment, shame and blame, we're saying, "I'd like to study this part of the curriculum more deeply and more intensely." That's how we use our free will in our experience of time and space, our 3D experience.

In Chapter 2 here, Section I, "The Origins of Separation," Paragraph 2, it says here--talking about distortions and it's talking about that we believe we can create ourselves and that the direction of our creation is up to us. But all directions lead back home to God. This is the story of the Prodigal Son, is it not? That eventually will decide to go home. We're on that journey home, that's what it feels like to me.

These distortions represent a picture of what actually occurred in the separation or the detour into fear. Here, Jesus is telling us that detour into fear is another way, it's synonymous with separation. He says,

"None of this exists before the separation..."

There was no distortion, no detour into fear. Hello, it doesn't exist now. Because, remember nothing real can be threatened, nothing unreal exists.

"Everything God created is like God. Extension, as undertaken by God, is similar to the inner radiance that the children of the Father inherit from Him. Its real source is internal. This is as true of the Son as of the Father. In this sense, the creation includes both the creation of the Son by God, and the Son's creations when his mind is healed."

When our mind is unhealed, we're not going to create anything, we're going to make things in the illusion, which is different than creating. This is an important distinction that Jesus makes here in A Course in Miracles is that God is the Creator, of course, we're God and we create but not in the world of illusion. The creations of God are perfect and they are eternally perfect. They are expressions of perfection. What God creates is perfect, it is whole, it is Joy, it is Love, it is Prosperity, it is abundant, it is Wisdom, it is Clarity, it is Purity, it is Freedom, it is Harmony, the creations of God are expressions of these spiritual qualities. Always perfect, always pure. Whereas, in the illusion, we can make things and often times, we make them into false idols. Whether you're making a book or a pie or house or a conversation or you're making love, let's say, whatever you're making in this world is temporary. It's not eternal.

The expressions that we make in this world are opportunities for us to experience what it's like to be the creator of our world. It's not without the value because we are learning to remember ourselves.

Now, it says here,

"The creation includes both the creation of the Son by God, and the Son's creations when his mind is healed."

When our mind is healed, we're going to create perfection. Expressions of perfection, expressions of Beauty, expressions of Joy and Freedom and truth. This requires God's endowment of the sun with free will because all loving creation is freely given in one continuous line in which all aspects are of the same order. Everything is of the same order, in other words, all is One. Nothing is better than and nothing is less than. If we just remember this, as we go throughout our day and look at where we're trying to separate or sort in our mind, saying this is better than and this is less than. If we just pay attention to that and we choose to stop doing it, to stop choosing that. That is the thing that is going to dramatically increase our learning within the curriculum, our eliminating, repeating the same errors.

All day long, you can notice how the ego mind is evaluating to say who's better than, who's less than. Who's naughty, who's nice.

Now, Paragraph 3 here, it says,

"The Garden of Eden, or the pre-separation condition was a state of mind in which nothing was needed. When Adam listened to the "lies of the serpent," all he heard was untruth. You do not have to continue to believe what is not true unless you choose to do so. ”

There's your free will choice.

“All that can literally disappear...”

All that. All the “lies of the serpent,” all the lies of the ego, all the suffering, can literally disappear.

“...in the twinkling of an eye because it is merely a misperception. What is seen in dreams seems to be very real. Yet, the Bible says that a deep sleep fell upon Adam, and nowhere is there reference to his waking up. The world has not yet experienced any comprehensive reawakening or rebirth. Such a rebirth is impossible, as long as you continue to project or miscreate. It still remains within you, however, to extend as God extended His Spirit to you. In reality, this is your only choice, because your free will was given you for your joy in creating the perfect. ”

Yes. Let us use our free will to experience the Joy in creating the perfect. Let's make that our prayer. “Holy Spirit, Higher Self, Holy Self, please help me to use my free will to experience perfection, to experience Joy that is unconditional, to know and to value the unity of all life. This is what we can do with our free will is we can choose where to place our attention.

Freedom of Will

Now, in Chapter 30, towards the end of the Text, “The New Beginning,” is the name of Chapters 30. The second section is entitled, “Freedom of Will. ”It says,

“Do you not understand, that to oppose the Holy Spirit is to fight yourself?”

To oppose the Holy Spirit is to fight yourself. I don't know about you, but me I've had so many experiences, where the still small voice will say, “Go the other way. Choose Peace, choose Love, choose Kindness, choose self-love, choose compassion, choose Peace, Harmony, choose to say something different, choose to not say anything at all, forgive, release that judgement. Go the other way. Don't eat that now. Don't go over there now. Don't call them now or call them now. Now is the time to call them.”The still small voice giving us instruction and direction all the time. So many people tell me they don't recognize intuition but honestly it is, it says in A Course in Miracles if you don't hear intuition, it's because you don't wish to.

There's another prayer, "I am using my free will to hear the voice of the Holy Spirit, to hear to find intuition and inspiration. I'm actively choosing that." The next time you get a sense of go the other way, just notice, are you interested in going the other way, are you interested in following the guidance? Because the more you're interested in following the guidelines, the more you're going to hear it. The more you follow the guidance, the more you're going to be following the choices of Love and Patience and Kindness and Generosity and Wisdom and healing and you will be undoing the ego identification. Remember, this whole experience of working this curriculum of A Course in Miracles is one of identification, where recognizing that we have mistakenly identified ourselves as a body, as a craving, needing, wanting, shaming, ashamed entity and it's totally false.

The ego has no free will. The ego cannot make any choices at all in this world. The ego cannot make any choices at all. But, when we believe we're separate, then we will be listening to the voice of the ego and we will make the ego choices but the ego doesn't have the power to make any choices on its own because it's not real, it doesn't exist and it never will. It's a thought system of separation.

For me, using my free will to remember divine will or you could say align with divine will, using my free will to teach only Love, so that I can remember and that's what I am. In this path way, I am using my free will to recognize I am not a body and to recognize I am pure Spirit.

Again, going back to this "Freedom of Will," Section 2 in Chapter 30, Paragraph 1, "Do you not understand, that to oppose the Holy Spirit is to fight yourself?" When we don't listen to that still small voice, we're actually fighting ourselves. The Holy Spirit tells you, but you will, how could that be so when it seems like my will is to be self-destructive and the Holy Spirit is guiding me to that, which is healing and nourishing and self-loving. I really, if I'm identified with the ego and I'm feeling like, "Oh, no. I'd rather go into self-medication and self-sabotage, self-destruction." When it seems like that, how could I say my will is God's Will? But it is God's Will and in this world, we have the illusion of free will to choose what part of the curriculum we're going to learn. If we're not done with the part of the curriculum, that's about self-sabotage and self-destruction, self-flagellation, pain and suffering, then, we can choose that and we will become very enamored of it, because they are so identified with the bad self.

The Holy Spirit tells you, but your will. That still small voice is only telling you, what you really would like to choose. The Holy Spirit speaks for you,

"...in His divinity is but your own. All the Holy Spirit knows is, but your knowledge saved for you that you may do through Him. You may do your will through Him. God asks you to do your will. He joins with you. He did not set His Kingdom up alone and heaven itself but represents your will, where everything created is for you. No spark of life but was created with your glad consent, as you would have it be. And not one Thought, that God has ever had but waited for your blessing to be born. God is no enemy to you. God asks no more than that He hear you call Him "Friend. "

How wonderful it is, to do your will! For that is freedom. There is nothing else, that ever should be called by freedom's name. Unless you do your will, you are not free. And would God leave His Son, without what he has chosen for himself? God but ensured that you would never lose your will, when He gave you His Perfect Answer. Hear It now, that you may be reminded of His Love and learn your will. "

Yes.

"God would not have His Son made prisoner to what he does not want. He joins with you in willing you to be free. And to oppose Him is to make a choice against yourself, and choose..."

Now, isn't this our experience to choose with our free will? To be unloving and to be unkind, don't we feel bound and tethered and we're tethered to this world of density by moving to that choice and that's why we suffer.

A Course in Miracles Lesson 190 tells us that pain is the wrong perspective. We have free will to change our perspective. How about making our prayer be to the Holy Spirit, "Help me see with God's eyes? To know what God's mind, to choose Freedom this day and every day. No separation for me. "

It's not that difficult but it does require our consistent attention, until we've reached that tipping point, where it's a whole lot easy. That's what I'm all about. What makes me so happy to share this with you, using my free will to align with divine will.

I'm Jennifer Hadley and you're listening to A Course in Miracles here on Unity Online Radio, where we're living the Love, we're walking the talk and I'll be right back.

You're One with God

Alright. Back to our topic here and that is "Free Will and Divine Will."
"Chapter 8, "The Journey Back," Section 2, Paragraph 3 here, it says,

"The ego cannot teach you anything, as long as your will is free, because you will not listen to it. It is not your will to be imprisoned because your will is free. That is why the ego is the denial of free will. It is never God, who coerces you, because He shares His Will with you."

You're one with God, God is not separate from you. Now, here's a really important point to understand. At least, it has been for me, because I've heard so many people say things like, "I'm just waiting for God to tell me what to do. I'm just waiting to find out, what God wants for me or what God wants from me or what God wants me to do." Now, in this world of effects, God does not want anything, because God is everything. How could it want for anything? This world that we're experiencing is not real, so why would God, your Higher Self, your Holy Self, want anything for you.

There's nothing to have in this world. There's only to remember our true identity. That's not a thing.

So often, people I think, are actually experiencing resistance and reluctance, denial, when they're saying they're waiting for divine guidance and direction. They're waiting to find out what God wants. You are the living loving presence of God, your will is God's Will. There's no separate will outside of you. There is only the illusion, that the ego has its own will but it doesn't, it doesn't. The ego is a thought system of separation and when we are thinking thoughts of the separation, then we are investing our free will in energizing separation in order to experience it as our choice in the curriculum.

We have a choice in each and every moment to grow through suffering and pain and re-experiencing the intensity of the separation. We also have the choice, to choose Love, to let our opinions and judgments go, to let go of the sorting of this is better than and this is less than, this is worse than and this is good and this is bad. We have the ability to let go of constantly sorting, sorting, sorting in order to separate and instead to choose unity and Oneness, as what the eyes with which we see. We see the Oneness; we see God's perfection in everything. This is what we have the ability to do, if we choose to do it.

This idea, that God wants something for us is insane. Our experience in this world is our choice, we get to choose with our free will, what part of the curriculum we're going to explore. It is not your will to be imprisoned because your will is free. That is why, the ego is the denial of free will. It is never God, who coerces you because he shares his will with you. God's voice teaches only in accordance with God's Will, but that is not the Holy Spirit's lesson because that is what you are. The lesson is that your will and God's cannot be out of accord because they are One. Your will and God's Will cannot be out of accord because they are One.

If you're waiting to find out what God's Will is, be willing to recognize that your will is God's will and to invest it in Love. Remember, nothing real can be threatened, nothing unreal exists. If you use your divine will to experience separation, suffering and pain, you will learn from it, you will experience growth, there's no question of that. However, you can use your free will to choose to learn through other unpainful ways, through joining, through unification, through Oneness, through extending Love, extending Compassion, extending Patience, extending Kindness, these are all the choices that you have. I love it.

The ego tries to teach, that you want to oppose God's Will, this unnatural lesson cannot be learned. The attempt to learn it is a violation of your own freedom, making you afraid of your will because it is free. Enough of that. [chuckles]

Oh, yes. Isn't it wonderful to know that your will is God's Will and that you have the ability to choose Love and that no matter what you choose, if you choose the darkest, meanest experience of separation, you are still not threatened, your perfection is intact, it always will be. Let's go back to that, that beginning to perfection.

Closing Prayer

Alright. It's time for me to pray. I'm Jennifer Hadley and I'm inviting you to place your hand on your heart and join with me now.
