Angels and ACIM

Welcome to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk with Reverend Jennifer Hadley, a beloved teacher of the Course, who has helped thousands learn how to express their beliefs from moment to moment in their everyday lives. Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace through practical application.

Here is your host, Reverend Jennifer Hadley.

Jennifer Good morning. It's definitely morning for me, 5 o'clock in the morning in Hawaii. Kauai, Hawaii. So happy to join with you today. I love the topic today, Angels and A Course in Miracles. We got on to the topic of Angels last weekend in A Course in Miracles class on Healing Self Attack. With Sherry Lane. And, yeah, we had a big angel infusion and--

Also, in technology. We couldn't hear each other. We've got so much energy flowing that all kind of interference happened with our technology, but we worked it out. Okay. I'm not going to have that issue today.

So, let's begin. I'm Jennifer Hadley. I always like to begin with a prayer and the Love thing. No extra charge in the world and so much extra charge in our Spirit. Wow.

Opening Prayer

Let's take that breath of Love and gratitude as we dedicate ourselves to the truth that sets us free. So grateful and so thankful to actively choose right now to have a healing, to open our hearts and minds to the very highest possibility of Love. So grateful and so thankful to recognize perfect Love is all that there is. Perfect Love is all that we are.

So grateful to know that where we are, insight is happening. Love is flowing. Love is our prosperity. Love is our Abundance. So grateful to choose Abundance, Prosperity, Wholeness, Freedom, Harmony, Wisdom, Clarity, and the all Good of God.

We are grateful and thankful right now to recognize that angels surround and enfold us. We're calling them forth to walk with us and talk with us to lead and guide the way. We're willing to be truly helpful this day and every day. We're willing to remember our true identity in God and to consciously release, resolve and dissolve all false identification with the ego. We're choosing the Atonement for our self and we're saying, "Yes," to our healing right now. In grace and gratitude, we share the benefits with every one because we're one with them. In gratitude, we allow our healing to be. We let it be and so it is. Amen. Amen, Amen.

Angels in our Daily Lives

Yes. There are many references to the angels in A Course in Miracles and they're all positive. The angels have so much help in assistance for us if we're willing to activate it.

One of the things I've definitely learned about the angels is that they're always at the ready, always willing to help us, but let's not ask for help to get something which is really an affirmation that we don't already have it in our awareness. Let's ask for help in awakening to our divinity, in accepting the Atonement, in anything that's truly valuable and really matters. Let's ask for help in that.

In Chapter 19, Section 4, which is called The Obstacles to Peace, is a long Section here in Paragraph 46, talking about the Fear of Death. Many people fear death, and yet unconsciously, many people are choosing death. Because when choose to align with the ego, we're literally choosing a physical death. When we choose egotistical thoughts, thoughts of blame and shame, and regret, and resentment, we're choosing to quicken that cycle of birth and death, and keep it going. The wheels of sorrow.

To recognize our eternal nature, we're eternal—hello, we're eternal. We're living a life eternal. And right now, it seems like we're living a life temporal time-based, but we're not. We're not actually here, even though in A Course in Miracles it tells us, "The one who sent you will lead you and guide you." And our only purpose is to be truly helpful. It seems like we're here, it sure does, doesn't it? However, we're eternal infinite beings.

In fact, just as an aside, of the top of angels, one of the greatest realizations for me, I used to be so bothered, irritated and frustrated, or so I thought by the belief that time was limited and I don't have enough time. I didn't have enough time. I didn't have enough money. I didn't have enough Love. I didn't enough of anything. That the nature of believe that we're actually hearing the illusion is you never feel like there's enough. But when we're willing to identify with the Spirit, we realize we're Infinite, we're eternal, and there are some Infinite Supplies.

So, if you are experiencing a sense of lack and limitation, is because you're experiencing that problem, which is the belief in separation. The belief and separation is a belief in lack and limitation. And, of course, the belief in lack and limitation brings the experience of lack and limitation.

Many people don't realize that there are these vast numbers of angels who will assist us in waking up and remembering our true identity and all we have to do is call upon them. Yes. The mighty force of God is very near. Yes.

Guided, Guarded and Protected by the Holy Spirit

It says--I love this. In Paragraph 46, Chapter 19, Section 4.

"The fear of death will go as its appeal as yielded to Love's attraction."

We have to yield this attraction for death, for complain, for resistance and reluctance, and the attraction for attack thoughts, and blame thoughts, and shame thoughts. We have to hand that resistance over to the Holy Spirit, to Jesus, to the angels.

"And the end of sin, which nestles quietly in the safety of your relationship..."

Your relationship with the Holy Spirit, your relationship with—your holy relationship with your brothers and sisters. It's there, the end of sin. The end of suffering is there protected by your union with your brother. There's only one. And ready to grow into a mighty force for God, is very near. How near is God? Closer than my breath.

"The infancy of salvation is carefully guarded by love, preserved from every thought that would attack it and quietly made ready to fulfill the mighty task for which it was given to you."

Your newborn purpose: awakening, accepting the Atonement for yourself.

"Your newborn purpose is nursed by angels, cherished by the Holy Spirit, and protected by God Himself."

That's good to know. Your newborn purpose--when you choose the Atonement for yourself, your purpose is nursed by the angels, cherished by the Holy Spirit, and protected by God Himself.

"It needs not your protection; it is yours. For it is deathless, and within it lies the end of death."

Yes. There are so many references in the Course where Jesus is telling us that we are guided, guarded and protected. I think some of the most helpful ones are in the Workbook, Lesson 131. Here.

Oops, I lost it. Give me one second. Lesson 131.come on.

"Put out your hand..." This is Paragraph 13. I'm going to back up a second.

Lesson 131, "No One Can Fail Who Seeks to Reach the Truth."

Such a great lesson. Paragraph 12.

"Seek for that door..." right? The door to our awakening.

"...and find it. But before you try to open it, remind yourself no one can fail who seeks to reach the truth. And it is this request you make today. Nothing but this has any meaning now. No other goal is valued now nor sought, nothing before this door you really want, and only what lies past it do you seek."

Put out your hand, and see how easily the door swings open with your one intent to go beyond it."

That's it. Just have that one intention to see beyond the world, to see the Infinite Nature of your true reality. Have that intention and you'll be led and guided.

"It's his angels light the way, so that all darkness vanishes, and you are standing in a light so bright and clear that you can understand all things you see. A tiny moment of surprise, perhaps, will make you pause before you realize the world you see before you in the light reflects the truth you knew, and did not quite forget in wandering away in dreams."

We wandered away like the prodigal son from our true reality in our mind. And when we're willing to open that door to our true reality, the door will be opened for us. It's only an illusion that it was closed. Angels light the way, so that all darkness vanishes, and you are standing in the Light so bright and clear that you can understand all things you see.

Now, I don't know about you, but I've talked with folks who've had near-death experiences, out-of-body experiences. This is what they said, they said that there was a light. You could call it a tunnel. There was the light and they went towards that light and everything made sense to them. Everything that they'd wandered about and questioned all the great mysteries of the Universe opened up for them and they knew everything in that moment. Everything.

The way was lit for them. There was no confusion. There was no fear. There was no doubt. No worry. All of it fell away. We can choose that in our experience in the dream. Being willing to be vigilant for God will take us there and the angels will help us.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ

Lesson 161, Give me Your Blessing, Holy Son of God. Blessing, Holy Son of God, Lesson 161.

"This do the body's eyes behold in one whom Heaven cherishes, the angels love and God created perfect."

So, the angels love us.

"This is our reality. And in Christ's vision is his loveliness reflected in a form so holy and so beautiful that you would scarce refrain from kneeling at His feet."

This is how we can truly see our brother. This is how we can receive brothers' and sisters' blessings.

Now, I'm going to back up to Paragraph 8 here, Lesson 161.

"Who sees a brother as a body sees him as fear's symbol."

A symbol of the ego.

"And he will attack, because what he beholds is his own fear external to him, poised to attack, and howling to unite with him again."

If you see your brother as a body, then you're going to see him representing fear, and death, and lack, and limitation. So, this is why we must train our self to see our brothers and sisters as they truly are, the Love of God, Christ.

This is why Jesus tells us, "What you did to the least of them, you did to me."

"Mistake not the intensity of rage projected fear must spawn. It shrieks in wrath, and claws the air in frantic hope it can reach to its maker and devour him.

This do the body's eyes behold in one whom Heaven cherishes, the angels love and God created perfect. This is his reality. And in Christ's vision is his loveliness reflected in a form so holy and so beautiful that you could scarce refrain from kneeling at his feet."

So, if we could see our brothers and sisters as they truly are, we would kneel at their feet. We would see the Vision of Christ that is there. Yeah. Think of that. I invite you.

"Attack on him is enemy to you, for you will not perceive that in His hands is your salvation."

Remember Lesson 68, my favorite Lesson, Love Holds No Grievances? Where it says, it is as sure that those who forgive will remember who they are as it is that those who don't forgive will forget who they are. Forgiveness helps us to remember. It allows us, it doesn't just help us. It makes it possible for us to remember who we are. This is why our brothers and sisters are our salvation. This is why our brothers and sisters have a blessing for us.

I think the Lesson 183 is the one that really makes it plain about the angels and how the angels support us and can help us and that we can actually call for their help.

Lesson 183 is what I'm going focus on when we come back and this lesson is so helpful. Lesson 183, I Called Upon God's Name and on My Own.

We're going to go take a break right now. While we do, let me just mention that we have two more free classes at LivingACourseinMiracles.com. It's all about Healing Anger. Do you have anger issues?

Oh, my God. I had the worst anger issues. Oh, I thought I would never get over that. I am very excited for our free classes this week at LivingACourseinMiracles.com. Please go. Registration is free and so are the classes. LivingACourseinMiracles.com.

We got a lot more for you there and right now, we got a break for you. I'm Jennifer Hadley. You're listening to A Course in Miracles on Unity Online Radio where we're living the Love, we're walking the talk. I'll be right back.

Thank you for tuning in for A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace through practical application as we return to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Call the Name of God

Jennifer I'm Jennifer Hadley. We're talking about Angels and A Course in Miracles today. You know, I think that--well, one of the experiences I've had is, with Course in Miracles students, is when I start talking about angels, sometimes they go, "Oh, no. Jennifer, what are you doing talking about angels? We're A Course in Miracles students." What I think happens is that people read the Course and they see the references to angels, and they think that they are somehow metaphorical because the language is so poetic. So, they don't think that Jesus is actually giving us clear instruction for our path of awakening here. And somehow, the references to angels don't have anything to do with that. But let me tell you, I think He's being very clear and very specific.

He says here in Lesson 183, I Call Upon God's Name and on My Own.

"God's name cannot be heard without response, nor said without an echo in the mind that calls you to remember."

When we call the name of God, when we go into prayer, remember, A Course in Miracles tells us over and over again that prayer is a means of communication with our maker. Prayer is extremely helpful. It also tells us that the best prayer, the most fruitful prayer, is when we can lay upon the altar all the sense of needing and wanting and craving and lack and limitation. So, if we can go to the altar of God, Jesus taught a prayer in his human life if we can go to the altar of God without needing anything.

Imagine that you have a relationship with God, with the Holy Spirit, with Jesus, because you do. We do. And so, this is a real relationship. So, think about it like that. I have found that to be incredibly helpful. Think about it as a true relationship and think of in your relationship with God, or think of a relationship you have with the loved one. If every time, the only time you went to that person, that being that you love, you ask for something. You went because you asked for something. You went because you needed a thing. You went because you were in fear in lack and limitation experience every single time.

Now, fears of our own making, A Course in Miracles is very clear about that. Jesus is very clear about that He cannot take the fear from us because we've chosen the cause of it. We'd like to live a life, a life without fear, practicing A Course in Miracles will take us there very quickly if we actually let it.

One of the ways that we can help ourselves is by calling the name of God not to need something, not to get something, but to unify, to connect. And when it is our intention and our desire to connect with God, to communicate, and not just to tell God something because what could we possibly tell the Infinite Creator God when everything is known in the Mind of God. But the communication that is vital for us is to listen. So, we call the name of God to remind ourselves to listen, alright?

"And say God's name--," it's in Paragraph 2.

"And you invite the angels to surround the ground on which you stand, and sing to you as they spread out their wings to keep you safe, and shelter you from every worldly thought that would intrude upon your holiness."

Now, if that doesn't sound clear, helpful instruction of how to block out the ego and hear the Spirit more clearly, I don't know what does.

"Say the name God and you invite the angels to surround the ground in which you stand, and sing to you as they spread out their wings to keep you safe, and shelter you from every worldly ego thought that would intrude upon your holiness." Yes, right there, very clear.

In fact, I did a whole radio show about this. I think it was back in late August, late August of 2014, about calling the Name of God. Check that out. Remember, too, that--I believe this is Episode 189, 189 episodes. Including episode of Kenneth Wapnick, Gary Renard, and David Hoffmeister, Tama Kieves, and Regina Dawn Akers, and Nick Davis, Jon Mundy. Gosh, so many Course in Miracles have been a guest on this radio show. Another wonderful folk like Collin Tipping.

Yeah. It has been 189 episodes. So, we've covered a lot of ground, there is some more to cover. I never get tired of A Course in Miracles. I just never ever get tired of it. I love it.

Call the Name of God, the angels will surround you and they'll run interference and to help you.

I think it's really fulfilling for me to recognize that I'm having a relationship with God. I only went to God when I needed something. What kind of a relationship would that be? It's not that we get tired of hearing or anything like that, but I obviously wouldn't know what God was for.

Now, as I was saying earlier before the break, you can ask the angels for help. They love to help. They're here to help. They are. They are always with us. I do know that we all have guardian angels, always whispering to us, always talking to us, always supporting us, leading us, and guiding us. It's just a matter of, whether or not, we will choose to listen. Will we choose to listen or will we choose to listen to the ego? It's always that question.

Seek Help and Guidance to the Angels

Lesson 303, The Holy Christ is Born in Me Today.

The Holy Christ is born in me today.

"Watch with me, angels..."

Here's our prayer.

"Watch with me, angels, watch with me today. Let all God's holy thoughts surround me, and be still with me while Heaven's Son is born. Let earthly sounds be quiet, and the sights to which I am accustomed disappear. Let Christ be welcomed where He is at home. And let Him hear the sounds He understands, and see but sights and show His Father's Love. Let Him no longer be a stranger here, for He is born again in me today."

Watch with me, angels, watch with me today. And to me, that's a prayer that we can utter every single day, all through the day. Watch with me, angels. Come and hear only the voice of the Holy Spirit. Help me to hear only God's Voice. Help me to know only Love. Help me to teach only Love. Help me to live as my true identity and stay in my true identity. Run that interference with the ego. I am no longer interested in identifying with the body and with the ego. I'm no longer interested in seeing my brothers and sisters as a body. Let me see the Holy Christ born in everyone today. And the angels will help us do that.

Yes, we can ask them to help find a parking space, but let's seek for angelic support in lighting the way, in lighting the way home, for they care and they support. All we must do is ask. They can't intercede. My understanding is angels can only intercede if it's the possibility of an accidental death that's not planned, it's not in our script, something like that. They help maintain the highest possibilities of the script. Now, the angels have so much guidance they can give to us, but do you have to ask for it?

The invitation that I'm sharing with you is to start asking the angels for help all day long. Just keep asking and asking all day long. But again, don't ask for help in the world of affects in the sense of, "Get me this, give me that." Don't make them your messenger boy, your shopping assistant, but instead invite the angels to help you see and know and feel and hear more clearly the truth that sets you free. There's the real help.

Yes. Along with invoking the Holy Spirit to decide for us, you decide for me. Another precious tipping from A Course in Miracle saying to the Holy Spirit upon waking each day, "You decide for me. You lead me. You guide me. This day let be with you." Yes. These are such life-changing practices.

Do they cost us anything? No, they do not. Did they give us anything? Yes, they give us everything. Everything that's valuable comes from this, well, practice. Now, why wouldn't I choose this level of willingness? Because I'm afraid the angels and the Holy Spirit would be leading me someplace I don't wish to go. So, if that's your fear, that the angels and the Holy Spirit would lead you and guide you someplace you don't wish to go, then you are saying truly, "I would rather align with the ego."

This is the whole teaching. I've done so many radio shows on holy relationships. If you've got relationship issues, go back to February 2012, February 2014, I've done a lot of relationship episodes. Lots and lots of them. You go back to them. You can listen to them.

But basically, a lot of people, they fear having the Holy Spirit guide and direct them. They fear making loving choices all day because they think they're going to give up something. What would you give up but your suffering? However, if you think you need a relationship in the form of sin, or could be a job or something else like that, if you think you need these things, and that you cannot be happy without them, then you value them above your awakening.

What I learned is the only way I can be happy is to turn everything over to God, turn everything over to the I AM that I AM, turn everything over to the Higher Holy Spirit Self to be led and guided. I've had a lot of relationship shifting. In fact, I gave all my relationships to the Holy Spirit. I asked to make them all holy, make them all holy. And, boy, those relationships were transformed. And some of the people that I was closest to, I don't speak to at all anymore, but there is Peace. There is Peace. And if they walk in the door right now, I'd be so happy to see them. I didn't make them go. I didn't ask them to leave. They went their own merry way. I have a holy relationship with them now, and it feels peaceful and I did not know how to do it myself. I tried and tried and tried. I labored in vain. Yes, I did, I labored in vain. Oh, my God.

Share the Gifts of God

Alright, so going back to the angels,

Lesson 316, All Gifts I Give My Brothers Are My Own. All the gifts I give my brothers are my own.

"As every gift my brothers' give is mine, so every gift I give belongs to me."

To have, give all to all.

"Each one allows a past mistake to go, and leave no shadow on the holy mind my Father loves. His grace is given me in every gift a brother has received throughout all time, and past all time as well. My treasure house is full, and angels watch its open doors that not one gift is lost, and only more are added. Let me come to where my treasures are, and enter in where I am truly welcome and at home, among the gifts that God has given me.

Father, I would accept your gifts today. I do not recognize them. Yet I trust that You who gave them will provide the means by which I can behold them, see their worth, and cherish only them as what I want."

All gifts I give my brothers are my own. Let me acknowledge to give to God today. Let me see the gifts of God today. Let me desire only the gifts of God today. Instead of what I think is mine, let me receive the gift that God has for me. God's gifts are going to be so much greater than anything in this world that I could conceive of as a gift. The gifts of God are not of this world and neither am I. Neither am I. So, why would I settle for the gifts of this world when I have learned over and over again that they do not satisfy?

In fact, I think one of the greatest lessons that we all learn is--you know that feeling that you have when you get what you've wanted for a long time. You feel like, "Oh, I'm so happy, I got what I wanted. Yay!" And we think that we're happy because we got what we wanted. But we're actually only happy because for a moment, we're deluded into thinking we have what we want. So, for a moment, we've stopped wanting. And that momentary cessation of the wanting, the needing, the craving, is what makes us feel happy, but we can live in that space. All the gifts I give my brothers are my own. We can have it all. Act now and have it all.

Angels Within You

Jennifer We're back. I'm Jennifer Hadley. We're talking about Angels and A Course in Miracles. In the Workbook epilogue, it says,

"You do not walk alone God's angels hover near and all about. God's Love surrounds you, and of this be sure; I will never leave you comfortless."

Well, what I'm suggesting to you based on my own experience of the angels is that ask for assistance in your awakening, ask for assistance in your healing, but not in form. Not in form. Because if we're asking for help in form, we're making it real which doesn't help us. And if we're asking for assistance in form meaning, "Oh, help me find a parking spot," there's nothing wrong with asking for help and finding a parking spot, but if we're saying, "Oh, help me. Angels, help me to make him love me," or, "Help me to get this particular job," instead let us ask for assistance in seeing the highest and best, most loving choices in every moment. To me, that is the prayer that brings the most benefit.

Because, let's say you're asking for help in getting a car, okay, or getting him to love you, or asking for help in getting a raise, not that they can't help you with all that stuff, but if you're making the assumption that you know that that's for your highest and best, but you don't know what's for your highest and best. Clearly, until we can see beyond the time and space and know what everything is for, then we don't know. Let's just choose the highest and best, path of Love, the course of Love. Let us choose that and it will reveal to us the very thing that would make us happy.

When we assume that this or that thing, like getting a raise or not getting fired will make us happy, we don't know. For me, getting fired, breaking up with a man I was in a relationship with, having all kinds of things that seemed like disaster, very unpleasant, not at all what I wished for, those things having them happened, it turned out were the very best things that could happen to me. If I was asking the angels to stop them or prevent them, I would in fact have been asking for my suffering to be prolonged.

I know I cannot yet see through all directions of time and space. I'm very intuitive, but I still can't see beyond time and space. I'm still in the third, fourth dimensional awareness.

Until my mind opens up to that fifth dimensional awareness, I don't know what anything is for, but the angels do. So, why don't I just call the angels, call the name of God, beloved I AM that I AM, angel surround and enfold me. Help me to see and know and feel and hear clearly the truth of God, the Love of God. Help me to know the Love of God and make all of my choices fueled and funded by that perfect Love. Let me choose what that is the highest and best. Yes, it is. So, we open our heart and our mind to this, to this possibility. The angels will always guide us. Yes. And they will protect us from the ego. This is what the Course is telling us here. So, why not call upon them for this assistance, so that we can live our destiny and teach only Love for that is what we are?

Yes, Chapter 26, The Transition, Section 9, for they have come.

It says, "Around you angels hover lovingly, to keep away all darkened thoughts of sin, and keep the light where it has entered in. Your footprints lighten up the world, for where you walk forgiveness gladly goes with you. No one on earth but offers thanks to one who has restored his home, and sheltered him from bitter winter and the freezing cold. And shall the Lord of Heaven and His Son give less in gratitude for so much more?"

Yes. So, let's take these words to heart. Around you, angels hover lovingly to keep away all darkened thoughts of sin and keep the Light where it has entered in. So, this is what its saying when we call the name of God, when we're focused on living this life of Love, around us the angels hover lovingly to keep away all darkened thoughts of sin. Now, we can choose to focus on thoughts of lack, attack, limitation and separation. That's always our choice or a choice that's available to us. We can actually ask the angels to help us choose only Love, to teach only Love, to recognize only Love. Why not ask for that assistance when it's available to us all the time, 24/7?

If you wake up in the middle of the night and you're in terror, if you're afraid, the angels can help you right then and there. Angels help me now. You know when we wake up in the middle of the night, night terrors, we don't realize what's causing it. But it's always caused by having gone into judgment. Maybe during the course of our day, we've latched on to some attack thoughts, we've latched on to some lack thoughts and we made them real. Then we wake up in the middle of the night with the night terrors feeling unworthy, unsuccessful, filled with pain and misery, doubt, anxiety, fear. Call the angels then. We don't have to suffer. We don't have to suffer in vain for sure.

“Around you, angels hover lovingly to keep away all darkened thoughts of sin and keep the Light where it has entered in. Your footprints lightened up the world, for where you walk, forgiveness gladly goes with you.”

This is Chapter 26. So, the message here is by the end of the text, by the end of the Workbook, we've got a commitment to forgiveness. What is forgiveness? It's nonjudgment. We've got a commitment to releasing the judgments rather than investing in them. And then, we can recognize that the angels are there around us lovingly to keep away all darkened thoughts of sin.

I'm inviting the next time you feel afraid, to call the angels for you to support you. The next time you feel worried, doubtful, and ashamed, ask for assistance from the angel to know truth that sets you free. This is our heavenly opportunity.

I'm going to say a prayer to close us out here and call the angels right now.

Just a reminder. I do have two more free classes this week at LivingACourseinMiracles.com. We're wrapping up an entire series. Loving ourselves free this spring, so great, what a great series of classes has been in

Closing Prayer

So, let's place our hand on our heart and take the breath of Love and gratitude and be so grateful and so thankful that Love is all that we are, and Love is all that there is. We Partner UP with the Higher Holy Spirit Self to remember our true identity and we invoke the angels in the name of God, Beloved I AM that I AM. The angels walk with us and talk with us to assist us in recognizing the highest and best, most loving choices. In each and every moment, we are choosing Love.

In grace and gratitude, we allow this prayer to be. We share the benefits with everyone because we're One with them, and we let it be, and so it is. Amen. Amen, Amen.

I love you. Have a great week. Mwah!
