Enlightenment or Bust!

Welcome to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk with Reverend Jennifer Hadley, a beloved teacher of the Course, who has helped thousands learn how to express their beliefs from moment to moment in their everyday lives. Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace, through practical application.

Here is your host, Reverend Jennifer Hadley.

Jennifer      Ah! So happy to be with you today! So grateful and so thankful to join together for a holy purpose, our awakening. I'm Jennifer Hadley, and I have a special guest on the radio show today. I'm going to introduce him in just a moment.

Let's begin as we always do, in gratitude and with a blessing.

Opening Prayer

I invite you to join me in placing your hand on your heart and take a breath of Love and gratitude together. So deeply grateful and thankful to open ourselves to the unlimited, unprecedented flow of Love. We consciously Partner UP with the Higher Holy Spirit Self to remember that our true identity is Love, it is our true nature.

We are grateful, and we are thankful, to allow ourselves to experience Heaven on Earth. We declare that we are One with the One, that we are "I AM that I AM" and One with the I AM Presence of all beings everywhere.

So grateful and so thankful to truly live the Love and walk the talk of A Course in Miracles. So grateful and so thankful to know that we are blessed, and we share the blessings of our life of Love with everyone, because we are One with them.

In grace and gratitude, we joyfully let it be. We let it be. And so, it is. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

A Documentary on Enlightenment or Bust!

Yes! As it turns out my guest today is also based in Hawaii. I'm on the Island of Kauai, and my guest, Craig Villarubia, is on the Big Island of Hawaii. Welcome, Craig!

Craig Thank you, Jennifer. Thank you for having me.

Jennifer Yeah! And we're-- I guess, its hurricane season. This is my first time this time of year here in Hawaii, so we've both escaped. We had a storm going to the south, and one to the north, so we're staying as dry as we can here. Of course, it's still beautiful over here.

I got so excited to talk to you about your A Course in Miracles documentary. This is something that people are really going to be interested in, and that's why I want to have you as a guest on the show to talk about it.

Your documentary is called, A Course in Miracles: Enlightenment or Bust! I just love that!

First of all, people can watch it online, and they can also host screenings of it, yes?

Craig Yes, that's correct, Jennifer. I'm actually about to embark on a tour with the movie. Really, the intention of the movie is to foster discussion, contemplation, and really question where we're at with our spirituality.

So, hopefully this movie will spark "a-ha" moments, Love, and laughter as I travel with the movie, and share in that dialogue.

Defining Ourselves – No Wrong or Right

Jennifer Yeah! I'm thinking one of the reasons why my audience would really be interested in this is, many people ask me all the time, how can they best introduce someone to A Course in Miracles, or talk about A Course in Miracles with them? I really think that this movie is a great introduction for people who are just friends of friends who study A Course in Miracles.

At the same time, of course, at Tony's community there in San Francisco, the Community Miracle Center, and he was calling me "Reverend Jennifer". I said, "You know, Tony, I really drop the Reverend. It feels a little bit like separation to me." He threw his head back, and he laughed, and he said, "I just legally changed my name to 'Reverend Tony!'" Anyway, that trivia, A Course in Miracles trivia there.

A Course in Miracles Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

Are you still there? Oh okay, I thought you might have a comment on that. But yeah, you got--

Craig I actually lost you for a moment there, and you were talking about the title of the “Reverend”. I didn’t hear your whole comment, Jennifer, but what I will say is, I do remember that story when I met up with Tony, and he talked about making that his official name.

One of the things that I thought with Tony’s interview, while doing the movie a thought which I walk away with is, on this spiritual journey there really is no right or wrong. As you said, some of us are inspired to either drop it-- in his case, to keep it-- and it’s all good. It’s all good. It’s all serving the same purpose, which is peaceful state of mind.

Jennifer Indeed! Indeed! Yeah! One of the things just came, popped into my mind, to address, and you might have a comment on this-- at the A Course in Miracles Conference in New York this year, Reverend Tony brought up a subject that was venturous to a lot of people. He declared that A Course in Miracles is his religion and stirring the pot there for some people who don’t wish to be part of a religion.

Gary Renard seemed to be very bothered by that. He’s actually not going to be at the A Course in Miracles Conference in Las Vegas next April. I’ll be there, so if you’re going to--anybody who’s listening and going to be there, are you going to be there next April?

Craig I sure am! I’m so looking forward! It will be my first time, so I will take my cues from you, because I know you’ve done it many times over.

Jennifer Yeah. I’ve done it two times actually, and it’s a lot of fun. I really enjoy it. I know we’re going to have a great time in Las Vegas.

I lived in Las Vegas for a short time. It’s not my favorite place in the world, but it’s going to be a great place for us to have the conference, and to just enjoy each other. For me, that’s what it’s all about, those conferences. They’re just about connecting with people, and really having time to have a meal with them, to sit down even just five minutes, or to hang out with people. That’s the whole thing for me.

They have so many A Course in Miracles teachers and speakers. It’s just a really great, fun, big party event. The teachings are only about an hour, an hour and a quarter long, so it’s not real deep-diving for the teaching. It’s more of a social fun event, a chance to connect with folks from all over the world doing A Course in Miracles and having fun with it.

So, I'm glad that you're going to be there next year. That's going to be really nice.

On the subject of "Reverend", "not Reverend" -- for me, I tried it on for a few years, everybody was calling me Reverend. That's fine. People still call me Reverend all the time. It doesn't really matter to me, but for some people, it can seem like separation. So, I stopped using it as a title, although the information is in my bio.

Regarding A Course in Miracles being a religion, I know we're off the subject of the movie, but you got Gary in the movie. I just love Gary Renard, and I'm so glad he's in your A Course in Miracles movie, because his teachings, Disappearance of the Universe, and his other books, and his talks that he gives are such a great way for people to be introduced to A Course in Miracles. He's always very eloquent, and for me, he's inspiring.

On this spiritual journey
there really is no right or wrong.

Where was it that you interviewed him for the movie?

Craig

I got a chance to meet up with Gary in Los Angeles. Like many of the teachers, Jennifer, he was really gracious with his time and willingly showed up for the interview not knowing who I was. I had never met Gary, or any of the teachers for that matter, at that point.

Like you said, Gary has a wonderful way of communicating these teachings. As you know, these teachings can be taught in many, many, many different ways.

Going back to the point that you were making, what you were sharing about the Reverend, I like what you said, which was simplifies it, is that it really doesn't matter. I think, ultimately, the terms or the positions we take - whether it's a religion or not a religion, those are all used to define ourselves.

Certainly, as I look at the play of all this controversy that did come up with Gary not being in the conference, and certainly Tony having that position, it's just a play-- a play of definition, of how we define ourselves. Either we align with it or we don't align with it, either we're part of it or we're not a part of it. But at the end of the day, to your point, it really doesn't matter when we come back to the truth of our identity, which you so eloquently expressed in the prayer as we started, which is Spirit.

Gary's teaching and Gary's message in the movie, was "How do we use the mind to choose between the body and Spirit?" and that's what we really want to do. We want to choose Spirit.

Jennifer Exactly! We really do.

Willingness for the Journey

I love how the subtitle of the movie is, Enlightenment or Bust! Did you start out with that or did you come to that?

Craig Yeah, when I first started this journey, I did the movie from a very selfish standpoint, because I really wanted to understand this Course, and I really wanted Enlightenment. That was my aim. That was really what I wanted. I couldn't think of a better way than meeting many of the teachers who had gone before me with the Course, and so the only way I can think of that would create a forum of the context for which I could meet all this people who wants to do an interview, and make a movie about what they had to say.

It really was, for me, "Enlightenment or bust" because I did not see an alternative. A lot of what the Course teaches us is to look at the way this world is operating, and really questioning it, so we can come into the recognition and the realization that our efforts to find happiness, and Peace, and Joy in the world are futile. It's only going to come from within.

That was really the charge behind my purpose when I was starting this movie, is really "Enlightenment or bust." It was all or nothing going into this, and the beauty that the movie offered, or the great thing about what I encountered in the movie, was that in following the inspiration to do the movie, in many ways, a lot of the questions that I had about the Course. And, what I was experiencing during that time period really was answered through the many teachers that I met along the way and, in many ways, they served as guideposts to this awakening that still continues, even as I share right now. It's still a journey of awakening that I'm so appreciative for.

A Course in Miracles* Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

Jennifer I feel the same way, Craig. I really do. I feel so blessed! I feel so blessed to have these teachings.

I remember when I first started studying A Course in Miracles, I was already--almost a Science of Mind minister. I'd almost finished my ministerial studies, a Science of Mind Practitioner for many years. I never felt the way that I do about A Course in Miracles about any other teaching. I literally had so many times when I would just weep, that I held the teachings in my hand, that I felt like my Teacher was there for me and with me, and so, so grateful because I had been searching, and I found what I was looking for.

To me, that all comes from that willingness that A Course in Miracles talks about over, and over, and over again.

When did you start making the movie?

Craig

I started the movie in 2012. I had been introduced-- or, I had found the Course probably about four or five years prior to that. I have the story, like many people, that the Course was introduced to me and it sat on my coffee table for a long time. In fact, I was introduced probably in the early 2000s, and it did, literally, set on my coffee table for many years until I read The Disappearance of the Universe. Like many people, that book served to help understand or see the Course principles from a different perspective, more certainly make it easier to understand, at least for me.

Then I started applying the principles, and I was having an experience with the Course! I was feeling different, and I had an awakening in the middle of the night. I didn't know exactly what it was, but it was certainly an experience that I had not experienced before, an experience of Love, and I knew something had begun to happen. The awakening was happening.

And so, it was at that point that I knew that this was what I wanted to do, and nothing else really mattered, because it was the only thing that felt real to me, which is just the experience of Love. That was the start of the documentary around the time. Not just the documentary-- I started doing the website, posting on the blogs, and using social media as the way of extending what I had been going through.

Our efforts to find happiness, and Peace,
and Joy in the world are futile.
It's only going to come from within.

A Course in Miracles Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

This all blew up and started unfolding in around 2012 and lasted-- the movie lasted for about three years. I literally just stopped working on it a few months ago. I could actually say that I'm still working on it. Right now-- I'm putting together--

Jennifer      Of course.

Craig          The behind-the-scenes, editing some of the extra footage that I'll be sharing with everyone as well, and certainly the tour. I'm still working with the movie. The movie's working with me, I should say.

Jennifer      People don't realize how extensive these projects are, and it's a labor of Love. It's an absolute labor of Love, because you're funding the movie yourself.

The awakening is happening.

I want to say, I really encourage people to support Craig and to support the movie. It's just a charming, personal tale of someone doing what we're all doing, which is discovering this truth in our own life, in our own heart, and he's doing that while traveling to meet with some of our favorite cast of characters.

Before we go any further, Craig, can you tell us a little bit about that awakening experience that you had? Can you tell us a little more?

Awakening & Following Inspiration

Craig          Sure. Yeah, I had been doing the Course for a few years. Like many people, I would start the Course, stop, start, stop. I would do the exercises, get to certain points. Finally, I got to a point where it's, "Okay, I've got to do this, and I need the help." I prayed on it, and I said, "You know, I'm going to do this, without any judgment," which meant, if I forgot to do it, I'll be okay with it. If I missed a day, I would be okay with it. I would just continue to pick up where I left off, as if nothing happened.

Really, not knowing it then, I was really forgiving myself, and not putting any particular way, or shape, or form that I needed to do these exercises other than the way it was described by the Course. And so, I stuck with it.

I was about two thirds into Workbook. I woke up in the middle of the night and I was-- the best I can describe it, I was embodying an experience of complete Love, and definition-less awareness, where there was a knowing and a recognition that I wasn't limited by the body, and that all things were me--that there was nothing separate from me.

Words would never really put together that experience. I can only talk about it now in a story, but in the experience of it, what I took away was the truth of where this is leading, and this was real! Spirit is real! What we are is real! That became very evident to me in that moment.

Since then, I've had many other spiritual experiences, and mystic experiences, and continue to do so. But that was probably the first time in my story where everything had seemed to drop and become so crystal clear, so there was no turning back. It was obvious.

And, for me, it was clear that it was the application of A Course principles. Up into that point, I was doing the Lessons, I was applying them in my experience. I was having difficulty at work. I was fearful of following my inspiration. I was having issues in my relationships. I had plenty of things to use these principles for. All I can say is, at some point, a lot of that stuff just began to dissolve, and what I was left with was something that was true, which is Spirit.

From that point on, I knew I would follow nothing but Spirit. The movie is really about following inspiration, so it's following what the heart calls for, and the Joy, because that's telling me it's real.

Jennifer Yes! That's right! Oh! I love it. Thank you for sharing that intimate moment with us, Craig.

We're going to share a moment here with everybody, as it's time for us to go to the break. I'm Jennifer Hadley, and my guest today is Craig Villarubia. He is the director of the documentary, A Course in Miracles: Enlightenment or Bust!

We're taking a short break here, and we'll be right back on Unity Online Radio.

Thank you for tuning in for A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Get ready to focus on your intent to be the Love, be the Peace, through practical application as we return to A Course in Miracles: Living the Love, Walking the Talk.

Trusting All We Need Will be Shown

I'm Jennifer Hadley, and I'm back here with my guest today, Craig Villarubia. We're talking about the documentary film, A Course in Miracles: Enlightenment or Bust!

We'll give all the people the details, and the schedule, and everything that you're going to be sharing with us, so people can come and see the movie. Craig will be talking about that in a little bit.

Will people also be able to see it online?

Craig Yes, Jennifer. If they go to ACIMdocumentary.com, they'll be able to pre-order the movie and streamline it and download it to their computers.

Jennifer Nice! Very nice! Yeah, that's wonderful.

I really encourage people to take a look at this movie and share it. Things like this are just a great way to introduce people to the Course, to start a conversation about the Course.

Of course, it's a wonderful opportunity for Study Groups to have a different kind of experience and share something fun and light-hearted. You've got some of the most light-hearted A Course in Miracles teachers I've met and know, from Earl Purdy, Gary Renard, David Hoffmeister. I'm really not familiar with Jacob Glass, I don't really know much about him.

In the making of the movie, did you have some life-changing a-ha's?

Craig Oh, absolutely! I made so many a-ha's, both on the camera or in front of the camera with the teachers, but also behind camera.

From behind the camera, I would say--you know, I'm not a filmmaker, so I have no clue as to how to make a film. But as the essential teaching is following inspiration, I have this all this inspiration to do his film, and so, really, the logistics part of making it was a complete choice of trust that everything would come together, and I would figure things out along the way, and everything that I would need to know would be shown to me. That was the case.

I had--my friend Tom volunteered to help with the camera. I had other friends help with some of the organization and travel stuff. And the teachers, you know, I didn't know if anybody was going to talk to me! I didn't know anybody. I didn't even know who I was going to ask.

A Course in Miracles Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

There were certainly one or two teachers that I knew that I wanted to do the movie, because I had seen their video on YouTube, or learned about them on the websites. But, there were some teachers I did not know, and so they came to me through other teachers. I remember having a conversation with David Fishman, and he was giving me a list of people that I should call. I remember I wanted Nouk Sanchez to do the movie, and she couldn't do it because of scheduling, but she referred me to Carrie Triffet, who I had never met and didn't know, and Carrie ended up in the movie.

I know, Jennifer, I wanted to interview you, but scheduling didn't work out.

Jennifer I know. Yeah.

Investing in Your Kingdom with Trust

Craig But, here we are, collaborating here together, so that's really what it's about, is collaboration.

Going through the movie, and following the steps, each-- and being very present with it, was really an exercise for me in trust. That is really how we can apply the principles in everything that we do.

So many times, we want to do things, we feel inspired, whether it be writing, or starting a new job, or leaving a job-- which is in my case-- and we're so afraid because we don't know the next--you know, we don't know the plan. Really, this teaching is about trusting the inner voice and the Joy that comes in the heart, and the plan will be provided, as it always is.

The logistical part unfolded as it did, and it was perfect. In the movie, I was in a time period where I wanted to really embody this idea of Course teaching, and following the principles, and devoting myself, really, to a life of devotion to Spirit and to inspiration. But I was in a 9-5 job, and I had a lot of investments in my job, in my house, and my lifestyle in Los Angeles, and what I thought I was, my position and so forth.

So, in those three years there was a lot of undoing, or convincing that Spirit needed to do with me, and for my perspective, Spirit really used these teachers that I interviewed to show me that, "Yes! It can be done! You can follow your heart and be okay! Not only will you be okay, you'll be happy!" which is really what we all want.

A Course in Miracles Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

In the movie, the first person I met, Carrie Triffet, she was giving her insight and sharing her message of how the Holy Spirit can speak to us. So, she was expanding my scope and understanding of how to hear the Holy Spirit.

When I met with Gary Renard, this whole idea of forgiveness, overlooking our thoughts and limitation-- limitation in others and in ourselves.

When I met with Jacob Glass, really questioning, what were my investments, and my perceived Kingdom, as the Course will refer to? "Look at your Kingdom! Is it really bringing you what you think it brings you?"

Looking at that from an honest point of view, I came to the conclusion that, "No! Holding up this lifestyle, and this idea of myself, the self-concept, is not working!"

Then meeting with David Hoffmeister, and his simplicity, and his message about Enlightenment, and really what that was about. And Earl Purdie, sharing his story about when he left his job to pursue and devote himself to a life of devotion to teaching.

Trust is just another name for willingness.

Hearing all those stories, and some other ones that I didn't mention, really answered my question, and showed me that, yes, it can be done, and that you can live a miraculous life. But, it's going to be of Spirit, and it's going to be of something much bigger than what I thought was controlling my life." I wasn't authoring it anymore, I can't author it anymore. Truly a trust in the Higher Intelligence.

Jennifer Yes! And that's how we discover an unshakable Faith, is through many, many acts of trust, that willingness. To me, trust is just another name for willingness.

Craig Yeah, that's beautiful. That unshakable-- I love that word! Yeah, you don't know it until you take those steps, until you're willing to be wrong about what you thought.

Because, in my mind--I get it. there is fear that seems to come up and make itself apparent when we are looking to follow inspiration and want to follow our heart. There's a fear that somehow there may be loss. There's a fear that if I do this, I may hurt someone in the process, I may be hurt in the process.

Sharing the Unlimited Flow of Everything

---

And so, the willingness to be wrong, that that is not true! That if we indeed follow the heart's call-- not from a selfish standpoint but from a standpoint that supports the whole-- which is our happiness that supports the whole-- when we follow that call, we will be giving a gift to the whole.

Jennifer      That's right!

Craig          We become a demonstration.

Jennifer      It's really shifting from trying to get something to sharing what you're being.

Craig          Oh, that's beautiful, Jennifer! Yeah!

Jennifer      Because anytime we're giving-- even giving of our Love, our Patience, our kindness, our generosity-- to get something in return, it's never going to go ideally. But, when we totally are just recognizing there's an unlimited flow of everything, there's an unlimited flow of Wisdom, and creativity, and Beauty, and truth, and Wholeness, and Freedom, and Prosperity, and Abundance, and I can share because it's unlimited, then we're not "giving to get" any more. That requires total trust.

There's no other way to get to unlimited flow except with total trust, and that's what Faith is. What you're sharing, how this journey became that for you, is so helpful!

Craig          Yeah! I like the word you use, "unlimited", Jennifer. Because, so often in my experience, what I found is I would limit Abundance by trying to define what Abundance means to me. I would say, "Abundance is-- this", or "It's-- that", or "It's only under these circumstances, or in this dollar amount."

If we define "unlimited-ness" in something, then we don't have unlimited-ness! We have a limited part of it! So, being willing to let that go, our idea of it, allows for it to show up.

Jennifer      Exactly! Exactly!

Craig          Yeah.

Jennifer      I did this show a month or two ago, I was doing a radio show about being miracle-minded. One of the things I love about A Course in Miracles is, it tells us that the miracle is not what happens in form. The miracle is the shift in your mind, and then, of course, things are going to change in form, because what you experience in the world of form is a projection of where your mind is.

In the making of this movie, I wonder if you could share some of your miraculous experiences? Because I know there's got to be a lot of them.

Craig

Yeah! Yeah there were a lot. The biggest miracle for me is, in the midst of the movie, there was this whole conflict or challenge within my mind of, "Can I leave my job? Can I leave my 9-5 world, and will I be okay?"

Finding Treasure with Trust

Here I am, it's been now probably a year since I gave my notice, and probably eight months since I actually left my job. The miracle is that I am okay, and I see life completely different. I'm no longer trapped in the constraints of needing to do something that I don't want to do in order to sustain myself.

The old thinking said, "You need to do X, Y and Z to sustain yourself."

The shift in perception, or the shift in mine is, "I am sustained by the Love of God," Lesson 50. And so, what that basically means is that whatever my needs are will be provided for, and today is testament to that, which is my needs are still provided for. That doesn't mean anything stops. Money flow has not stopped. Money flow still comes in.

Yeah, it's so funny! We moved to Hawaii, and we live on a ranch. Money thoughts have come to mind, but knowing what's true, and knowing that we will be supported, and having a miracle mindset, and being open to it, we found out-- not knowing at the time when we bought this property, we had no idea, we'd put everything into it, we're following inspiration, we bought this property.

After we buy this property, months into it, thoughts of money started to come to mind, we learned that our property grows this exotic wood, a Koa tree, which is native to the island of Hawaii, and we have this abundance of Koa tree throughout the property. Because of it, we have this whole reforestation project where we're cultivating the Koa.

A Course in Miracles Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

But, here's the kicker-- the kicker is, in order to bring the forest back to its original state, and to go on this reforestation project, we have to also clean out some of the dead Koa and wood. Guess what? All of that Koa wood is sellable! And, it's not only sellable, it's actually actively sought after! So, we have a treasure here! My brother has now set up an eBay store, and we're selling all this wood that came out of the property. It's like finding gold, or finding a treasure chest, yet not knowing that the treasure chest was here.

Be Willing to Allow & Trust

It's just, again, just reminding us when we're trusting, and we allow, we don't know what's going to be given to us. We couldn't have planned it that way! We didn't know that it would work out that way, and here we are--and, right now, that's our means at the moment.

That's just one example of miracle-mindedness and trusting that what will be provided will be provided from God, and we don't have to rely on sacrifice as a means to try to sustain ourselves.

Along the way, doing the movie there were so many miracles on the road. Lots of laughter, and

Are we willing to allow for it?

Love, and Joy, and forgiveness. There were plenty of opportunities for forgiveness on the road. Things don't work out the way you want them to work out and being able to look at it and recognize that it's an opportunity to exercise this muscle of trust, that it will work out the way it needs to work out.

We did a whole interview with one teacher that did not come out. The sound quality did not come out. It turns out that it was actually for the best, because the course of the movie actually took a different direction, so we couldn't use the footage anyway! Everything works out perfectly.

"Are we willing to allow for it?" is really the question, and the way to find Peace is, "Are we willing to be wrong about our plan, and instead of trust the one that's being given?"

Jennifer

Oh, yeah! Oh, yeah! One of the things that I say all the time-- for instance, when I moved to Los Angeles in 1994, I went there because I had applied to several film schools, and I was hoping to get in to the graduate screenwriting program at USC, which I did get in to.

While I was waiting to find out, I found the Agape International Spiritual Center, and I became involved in that community. Ultimately then, became a Science of Mind Practitioner and minister, and I've made God the focus of my life.

Now, I say that I have learned over, and over, and over again, that God is a "bait-and-switch" operation. You think you're going one way for a particular reason, but if you're willing, if your mind is open, if you're not attached, then you can discover, "Oh! I thought God sent me here for this, but really, I'm here for that!" Then you don't have any problem with it. There's no bummer, because you're following the Divine Inspiration, and you trust that it's going to be all good.

Well, you can hear that music, Craig, and that means it's time for us to take another break. We're going to come back and we're going to talk about some other A Course in Miracles projects that Craig and I are involved in. I know you would like to know about them, and we'll get all the details of how you get to see this wonderful movie.

You're listening to A Course in Miracles, where we're Living the Love, we're Walking the Talk right here on Unity Online Radio, and we'll be right back!

Online Virtual Conference Invitation

We've got a little bit of time left here, Craig, so I wanted to share about a couple of things. One is, we have a project, you and I, that's coming up that people are really going to be interested in. This is the *Awakening with the Workbook Online Conference*, a virtual conference at miracleshare.org, and I'm going to put the information on my Events page at JenniferHadley.com. This is a wonderful opportunity. How many teachers do you have in this?

A Course in Miracles Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

- Craig We have 28 teachers, Jennifer, and I believe it is the largest online collection of teachers in one place of A Course in Miracles.
- Jennifer Oh, I'm sure it is! We've got some of my favorites! You've got Lisa Natoli, Amy Torres, Gary Renard, Maria Felipe, Joe Wolfe, Kevin Rice, Myra Jones, David Hoffmeister, Reverend Tony Ponticello, David Fishman, Earl Purdy, John Mundy. You've got more-- Bill Free. Those are the ones that I personally know and love them all! I'm on there, too. That's just a wonderful--there's about 12 days of video conference, and then a live Q&A. I think it's an awesome opportunity for people to immerse themselves even deeper in these teachings. Miracleshare.org, so people can go.
- Craig Yeah! And, Jennifer, I just want to make mention, one of the things that I appreciate about what you do, and have been doing, is you've been introducing so many different teachers to your audience, so it gives your audience an opportunity to kind of get a flavor and taste of how the message is being extended.
- So, with this conference, in a similar manner with all these teachers, you get an opportunity to hear this message filtered through these symbols, these teachers, in different ways. So, there's certainly a lot of opportunity for the message to land with you.
- Jennifer Yes! Yes, the way I approach it is, I'm hoping to introduce people to the teacher that most speaks to them. That's my goal, and the way I share the other teachers. Of course, I always love having a conversation with A Course in Miracles teacher.
- Some people don't accept the invitation, but we extend it.
- People can go and register now, because it's very expensive to have all these teachers, isn't it?
- Craig Yeah. Yeah, right now if anybody wanted to, they can take advantage --I believe it is at a $59 price-point, and I think it does go up in the middle of September. So, right now is definitely a good time to take advantage of that.
- The good news also, if they're listening to this much later, or after the conference, all the content will be available. So, even if you decide to come to the event but you can only make one or two days, all of it will be recorded and saved, so you can visit it at a later time, as well.

A Course in Miracles Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

- Jennifer I was kidding about it being expensive! The dates are October 16th to the 18th. Oh! I thought it was--
- Craig 18th.
- Jennifer Yeah, for some reason I was thinking it was the 28th. October 16th to 18th.
- Craig It must have been the 28 teachers.
- Jennifer Yeah! Well I was born on the 28th of November, so 28 is my number. I see it everywhere, all the time--even when it's not there, apparently.

How to See the Movie

- So, let me just also ask you, you've got a tour coming up with the movie. What's the best website again to go and find out the details about the movie?
- Craig Yes, go to ACIMdocumentary.com. There you'll find all the screenings. We're going to be starting off in Los Angeles. We head to northern California. We'll be in Edmund, Canada, the Michigan-Ohio area and New York October 1st. Then down to Knoxville, Tennessee and North Carolina. We have a pretty full schedule.
- And, to your point earlier in this interview, you had mentioned we also are open to invitations. So, if someone has a strong call, or has a group that would like to come together, we can take a look at the schedule and see if we could come down and meet you!
- Jennifer Wonderful! Because here on Unity Online Radio the Unity churches, a lot of them, have A Course in Miracles Study Groups, and have wonderful facilities for showing movies and are looking to have events of this nature. So, yeah! What's the website again?
- Craig ACIMdocumentary.com.
- Jennifer Alright! So, they can just go there, and then contact you, and see all the dates, see if it's a city near you, or perhaps arrange for their own share. How nice! Mmm!
- Then, people will be able to also buy the DVD, right?
- Craig That's correct. So, if they go to ACIMdocumentary.com and find that we're not in their city, and they won't be able to host us, then they can also opt to buy a digital format of the movie.

Right now, there's 30% off using the coupon code "enlightenment" and they can download-- or pre-order, I should say, for download. The official release date is October 16th. so it would be a pre-order at this point, and then after that they can now go ahead and download it, or order DVD copy, as well.

Jennifer

Yeah! It's a charming movie. It's very much about Craig's own journey and, as you can tell, he's a lovely, inspired soul and this great group of teachers sharing about A Course in Miracles. I really think it's a great introduction for new people, but it's also lovely to see the teachers, and to hear what they're saying, even if you're a long-time student of A Course in Miracles. Personally, I never get tired of listening to things about A Course in Miracles or talking about A Course in Miracles. The conversation of A Course in Miracles, to me, it extends to every part of our lives, and it is an infinite and beautiful, never-ending conversation. Absolutely!

Yeah! And, we are blessing you, too, Craig, on your journey there in Hawaii. It sounds like you're discovering the treasure and sharing it with others. I look forward to adventures in the future together.

We're both here in the Hawaiian Islands now. Spirit's lead us here. It's kind of interesting-- I never thought I'd come and live in Hawaii. I can't tell you how many conversations I have had with Gary Renard about his desire to live in Hawaii, how much he loves Hawaii, and how his former wife, Karen, lives in Hawaii, and he hopes to--I don't think he would ever retire, but someday he and Cindy might move to Hawaii. I just never thought I'd beat him to it, never in a million years! But I'm very much enjoying it here. I'm happy to be out of the city, for now.

Free Workshops

Let's see. We're going to pray us out here in just a moment.

One of the things I'd like folks to know, too, is that this show is funded by your contributions. I offer free classes all the time. If you're interested in any of that, you can sign up at JenniferHadley.com. Right now, I have my free *How To Get Over It* forgiveness class right there on the Home page at JenniferHadley.com.

You might still be able to get my *7 Simple Steps for Interrupting The Patterns Of Fear*, which has been listed on the Home page at JenniferHadley.com. Again, that's another free workshop.

A Course in Miracles Weekly Radio Show with Jennifer Hadley

I frequently do free workshops. I'm looking at doing one in September on relationships, so you can stay tuned for that. That seems to be a popular topic people would like some support with.

This radio show--people listen to this radio show, Craig, in over a hundred countries around the world, so you may get some invitations from overseas. All the people who are around the world listening, I encourage you to send Craig an invitation and bring the movie to where you are, too. Let's spread this beautiful message of Living the Love and Walking the Talk!

Closing Prayer

I invite you all to place your hand on your heart, as we take a breath of Love and gratitude here and go within. We're going to accept our blessing, right here and right now. We're willing to accept our blessing. We're recognizing that there is no sacrifice!

Craig has made that so clear, there is no sacrifice that we have to make in order to live the truth, to live in trust, to live in Faith.

We are cultivating our willingness. We are cultivating our trust. We are willing to share from the overflow, to experience the overflow, and share the benefits with everyone, because we're One with them.

We consciously Partner UP with the Higher Holy Spirit Self, the I AM that I AM, in order to be our true selves and live our destiny.

We are grateful, and we are thankful, to share the benefits with all beings, because we're One with them. In grace and gratitude, we let it be. And so, it is. Amen. Amen. Amen.

Thank you, Craig!

Craig Thank you, Jennifer. Thank you for everything that you're doing.

Jennifer Yes! I look forward to how it all unfolds, and God bless you, everyone! Have a great rest of your week!
