Prayer Being A Liberator

Hello beautiful, this is Jennifer Hadley, and our prayer for today is for being a liberator.

Grateful to place our hand upon our heart and to anchor ourselves with love and gratitude. Gratitude and love lift us high.

We are grateful to step into that place of being truly helpful. Being truly helpful is a place of liberation.

We are grateful to liberate from limited ideas about ourselves, about life, about humanity, about God. All limited ideas fall away.

We're no longer interested in living in lack and limitation. We're choosing liberation instead.

Grateful to open ourselves to new insights and clarity about the truth that sets us free.

We are grateful to open ourselves to new insight, intuition, and dynamic divine downloads. We are truly rising up.

We are liberators. Love is the liberation factor, and we are choosing love.

Love is our true identity and our true nature, and we are broadcasting it, sharing it with all of our brothers and sisters all of the time.

We are grateful and thankful to choose to be liberators, to choose to remember the truth, to choose life eternal.

We are grateful and thankful to allow ourselves to openheartedly extend and share love and light.

We are liberating our ancestors, everyone who came before, everyone who comes after. We're choosing to share the love and spread the love.

Love is our healer because love is what we are.
