Prayer for Placing Faith In Love

Hello beautiful this is Jennifer Hadley, and our prayer for today's for replacing our faith in love, yes love let's place our hand upon our heart take that breath of love and gratitude and rise up rise up rise up we are grateful and thankful that we can place our faith in love and we're learning how to do that we're learning how to trust love and to trust that love is healing love is healing us right now. We are allowing ourselves to develop an unshakable faith by practicing trust, placing our trust in the power of love to heal where placing our trust and our faith in love being our true identity, love, transforms and renews, and we are grateful to discover how true that is, we're allowing ourselves to practice, placing our faith in our trust in making loving choices and being able to see clearly what the difference is between what the ego would call love and what love actually is so we're discovering and developing a deep in abiding faith and capacity to trust, love itself love, renewing us and restoring us love revitalizing us, and we are grateful and thankful that no matter what we've chosen in the past, no matter how bad it's been no matter how badly we have felt about ourselves, love still renews us and restores us into an awareness of our true identity and perfection our innocence and wholeness, so we are grateful and thankful for having the ability in the opportunity to be transformed by the renewing of our mind we are grateful for the healing that's happening now we share the benefits with all of our brothers and sisters because we are eternally one with them. We let it be and so it is amen amen. Amen. Yes, I feel that residence. Thank you for praying with me being my prayer partner
