Prayer for Choosing Happiness

Hello beautiful this is Jennifer Hadley and our prayer for today is for choosing happiness it's our choice we're choosing it now we place our hand upon our heart, and we are grateful and thankful that happiness is a choice that we can make. We are grateful and thankful that it is our nature to be happy and God's will for us is perfect happiness so we're aligning with our will with God's will, because there is only one will we are grateful and thankful that this is a fact that there's only when will and that will is God's will our will is God's will because we are part of God and it is God's will for us to live in perfect happiness, so we're choosing that we're choosing to trust God's will for yes, we are grateful and thankful to wholeheartedly allow ourselves to experience a true, consistent happiness not based on circumstances, but based on the very fact that we are part of God, so grateful and thankful to take responsibility for our projections and perceptions were taking responsibility for our interpretations and the meanings that we have given to things we are grateful that it is our destiny to live a liberated life. That is what we are choosing so today is a healing day. Today is the day we're choosing to allow ourselves to experience true happiness we share the benefits with everyone everywhere because we are forever one with them we let it be and so it yes, amen amen. Amen. Yes, very good. Thank you for joining me today. Thank you for praying with me. I appreciate you and what is coming i did two forgiveness workshops this past weekend and so I'm adding another one I'm doing the family forgiveness again this coming Sunday on Saturday. I am doing my deep dive workshop and the topic for November is when someone you love won't speak to you. How do you handle it? What do you too how do you deal with it? How do you not be in misery over it? That's what we're going to look at and work on and master of the living registration is open for next year and that deep dive when someone you love won't speak to you is a bonus if you're registered for masterful living another thing that's coming is father brother son? This is a five part class with Jesse Brun is my co-teacher and I'm very excited about this. The mother-daughter sister was such a success last year so I figure and I feel inspired to do one for the men as well father brother son so if you feel challenged by your relationships with your father's, your brothers and your sons and you would like to come on in and this is really about men relating to men in their lives they're close family, relationships, and healing those challenges so that is coming up. It starts on November 22 so that's what's coming up and I love you. Have a beautiful day, enjoying happiness, choosing happiness, perfect happiness
