Prayer for Proving God

Hello, beautiful. This is Jennifer Hadley, and our prayer for today is for proving God. Proving God, proving God, proving God works in our life, proving that the truth is real, proving that spiritual laws are always active and everything is for us. Nothing is against us.

So we place our hand upon our heart, and we focus on love and gratitude, gratitude and love. We focus on what's real and what's true. Love and gratitude lifts our vibration high.

We are grateful that the spiritual laws that run the universe are always in effect, always working for us, never against us.

And so we are proving that God works in our life. We're proving that choosing love transforms our consciousness. We're proving that it's possible to let go of the grievances of the past. We're proving that our mind is the mind of God and our thoughts are manifesting our experience.

We're proving that nothing in our mind is out of fact. Our mind is powerful because our mind is the mind of God. What we hold in our mind becomes manifest.

So we're relinquishing all the thoughts and all the focus on what we don't want, and we're turning our attention to what we would like, what we're interested in experiencing: more peace, more love, more joy.

We're proving that God works for us. It always has, and it always will.

We are grateful and thankful to remember that life is for us.

We are sharing the benefits with everyone, everywhere, because we are forever one.

We let it be, and so it is.

Amen. Amen. Amen.

Yes, proving God feels so good. No going back from proving God!

Thank you for praying with me today.

All right, what is coming up is free forgiveness workshops Saturday and Sunday, two days in a row. And the Sunday one, the focus will be on family forgiveness. Family forgiveness. But you can come with anything you like, so I encourage you to sign up for these now so you don't forget.

And what else is coming up? Father, Brother, Son. This is a new program. It is basically designed for men who are struggling with the relationships they have with their fathers, brothers, and sons, and to be that fulcrum of healing in the family and to hold the place in your mind for transformation.

Very excited about this class, and it's a five-part class. It starts on November 22nd.

What else? Masterful Living registration is open, yes! And the sooner you register, the more bonuses you get. The next bonus is the live workshop with me, the deep dive this month, November, which is "When People You Love Stop Talking to You Anymore." Yep, when people you love stop talking to you.

It's very, very challenging for most of us, and so this is something I know a great deal about, and I am excited to share.

So that's my deep dive workshop for November, and again, it's a bonus if you are already registered for Masterful Living next year. Next year is not that far away. It's coming quick!

And yeah, so putting a lot of focus on family things as Thanksgiving is coming and the holidays.

I love you. Have an amazing day proving God loves you and works for you.
